Opunake Centennial Parade

Bathing beauties of a few years ago. That was the theme of this float in the Opunake Centennial parade. When this picture was taken, it had started to rain, and the lasses on the float braved the elements, while mere man cringed behind shelter, lest he get himself wet! This was only one of the floats in a mile-long procession, the largest ever in Opunake.

First Stock Car Races In Taranaki

Something new in the way of sport has come to Taranaki. Stratford was the venue for the first-ever stock car racing. A new track has been formed at the showgrounds, where competed 14 cars, or rather heaps of scrap, reinforced with roll bars and crash fenders, with a V-8 motor under the lid, all hell-bent on putting as many dents into their opponents as they possibly could. Still, it was a good afternoon with over 5000 people crowding the grounds seeking those thrills that are associated with stock car racing. It is likely that the sport will prosper providing more cars are entered from other centres. Above: Part of the large crowd gathered for these events. Below: G.Pascoe, Hawera (99) prepares to give B.Love (Eltham) a swift kick in the pants. Bottom: Going the wrong way mate? No.77, L.King (Waitara) slews round as N.Hosking (Stratford) passes.

STOCK CARS ATTRACT 5000

Clouds of dust, plenty of thrills and spills were the main ingredients for the success of the opening meeting of the stock car racing at Stratford. Above: As one car chases another round this narrow track, clouds of dust rise from the speeding cars. Below: Perhaps the only way out of some of these cars is through the windscreen. Wayne Back, Patea, climbs out when his engine packed up in one of the races.

Off Belt Road the water was rough and the wind fresh

Flying Fifteen Championships

Anniversary Week-end saw the sailing for the New Zealand Flying Fifteen championships at Port Taranaki. The first day proved a tough one for the yachties, with windy and rough conditions, but the final races were held in more pleasant weather and smoother water. The photographs on this page were taken when conditions were not the best.

Conditions were smoother once the yachts had turned to the port

Heading out to sea again, the water became very choppy.

Back in the lee of the land things were much smoother

Girls' High Swim Sports

Fine weather helped to make the NPGHS swim sports a popular and successful event in the school calendar. We like these sports because of the number of events of a novel variety, which the girls enjoy as much as the spectators.

Above: The house diving display was something into which had gone a lot of practice.

Caltex Gold Cup To Tilka

Richest race, and the first leg of the TAB double, the Caltex Gold Cup, was won by Tilka, owned by Mr J.G.Alexander, Wanganui. The finish was a duel between Tilka and Titian, the favourite. The performance was repeated on the second day of the meeting. Above: Mr D.D.Bailey, president of the Taranaki Jockey Club, with members and stewards pay tribute to the winner, Tilka, at the presentation. Below, left: Jack Sullivan, representing Caltex, presents the gold cup to Mr Alexander. Below: Tilka returns to the birdcage after his brilliant win.

Scouts, Guides Parade In City

Hundreds of Scouts, Guides, Cubs and Brownies recently paraded through Devon Street, on a Friday night in celebration of Founder's Day. The procession was one of the longest for this association that has yet taken place in the city. The movement has grown very considerably in this area in the past few years.

W.C.N.I. Athletic Champs

A very poor crowd of less than 200 attended the first phase of the recent WCNI championship meeting at Pukekura Park. Main factor, no doubt, for the poor attendance was the blustery and wet weather, with the highlight of the afternoon, a mere ten minutes of sunshine. Above, left: Eric Kemp (Wanganui) wins the colts mile event. Above, right: Wendy Urquhart (NP), far side, just edges out M. Osborne (Wanganui) in the junior women's 100-yard event. Below, left: B. SCHOOL INSPECTOR RETIRES

Above: Popular and esteemed Ossie Johnston, senior inspector of primary schools in Taranaki, was recently honoured at the monthly meeting of the Education Board on his retirement after 42 years of service to education, 21 of them in Taranaki. Our picture shows Ossie (right) with the chairman of the Taranaki Education Board, Mr M.G.B. Harvey, and Mrs Johnston, after they had been presented with this standard lamp as a gift from the board.

Hospital Fire

At the height of the fire, just before the roof caved in.

Fire at the New Plymouth Hospital recently lit the night sky when the maintenance block, one of the older buildings at the hospital, caught fire. It looked as though the whole block was a loss, but some very prompt and brave actions by the firemen saved most of the building. We must admit fires make good photographs, but lately, the local brigade has been so efficient we haven't had the opportunity to get really startling pictures. Once again they saved what looked like a real burn-up. Congrats, boys!

This is what it looked like when the brigade first arrived.

OUR COVER

Three charming young ladies who have been involved in a dizzy round of social functions recently are Miss Brooklands, 1965, Jeanine Williams (centre) and her two maids, Lyn McKeon (left) and Irene Campbell (right). The three of them are a credit to this city.

BACK COVER

A re-enactment of the landing of the Redcoats on Opunake beach makes a picture from the past for our back cover. We hope that you don't notice that the whaler came out of the sea stern first!
