

New Plymouth

PHOTO NEWS

No. 106
Feb. 20, 1965

TARANAKI'S OWN PHOTO-MAGAZINE

2/6

Miss Ngamotu Beach, 1965

Winner and runner-up of the 1965 Ngamotu Beach beauty contest held on New Year's Day were Janice Barkley, left, of New Plymouth, the winner, and on the right the runner-up, Daisy Mendes Da Costa, an Indonesian-born girl who has only been in New Zealand for six months.

Married

Above, left: SHADBOLT-EDGEcombe. At St. Mary's Church, NP, Anita, only daughter of Mrs L. Edgecombe, NP, to Bruce, only son of Mr and Mrs A. Shadbolt, Christchurch. (VOGUE STUDIOS).
 Below: WILLIAMS-CAMBIE. At St. John's Presbyterian Church, Hawera, Maetel, younger daughter of Mr and Mrs T. Cambie, Hawera, to Ian David, younger son of Mr and Mrs W. Williams, Auckland. The attendants were Heather Cambie, Sylvia Oxenham, John Williams and Jim Craig. Future home, Christchurch. (DAVID PAUL STUDIOS).

New Plymouth "PHOTO NEWS"

Printed and published every fourth Saturday by LOGAN PUBLISHING CO. LTD.

A.N.Z. Bank Buildings,
 Corner Currie and Devon Streets,
 NEW PLYMOUTH.
 Telephone 6101. P.O. Box 427.

Editor: REG EVES

Telephone 88712.

Registered for transmission by post
 as a newspaper.

Prepaid subscription by post, £1/12/- per annum.

OUR COVER

Cover girl for this issue is Sheryn McKoy taking things easy during the hot spell we had over the holiday period. Pretty as both a photographer and model isn't she?

BACK COVER

Scene is Devon Street, with all the coloured lights used during the holiday season.

NEXT ISSUE MAR. 20

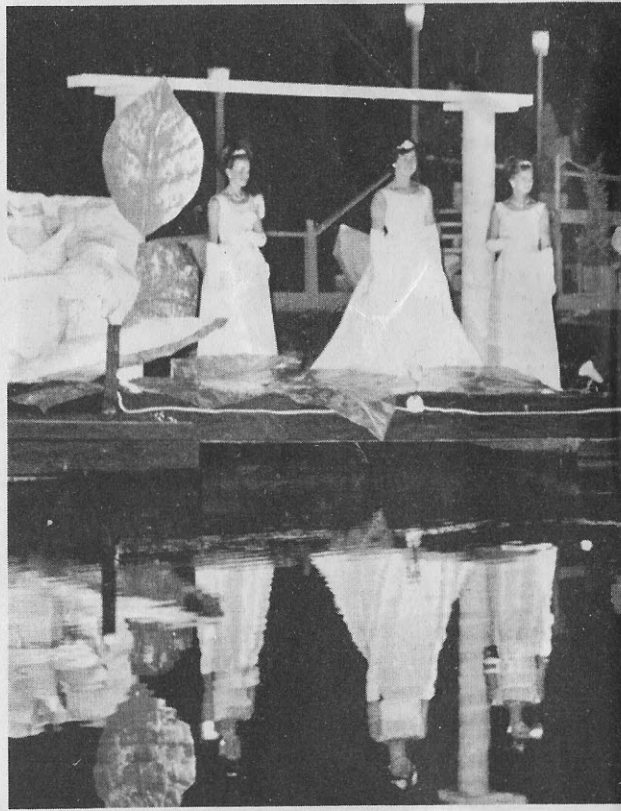

Miss Brooklands Pageant Best Bowl Show Yet

Six thousand people left the Bowl at the end of the Miss Brooklands Pageant firmly convinced that this was the best presentation yet seen at the Bowl. The sheer spectacle was well worth the money, and in addition there were some very talented artists to add to the enjoyment of an evening to be remembered. Vast improvement has been made at the Bowl, especially with some of the lighting effects. The presentation of each item left nothing to be desired, and the artists themselves were of a very high standard. Add to this magnificent programme a handful of fireworks and you have the ingredients of a wonderful evening, the best yet seen at the Bowl. Producer D.V.Sutherland had done a terrific job and had proved the potential of the Bowl with the right type of entertainment. From this year on, with perhaps the first-ever financially successful Festival, and the magnificence of the setting, the Bowl will be the attraction that it was meant to be by the wise men who first envisaged the beauty of the place. Our hearty congratulations to all concerned.

Right: Miss Brooklands, Jeanine Williams, and her two maids, Lyn McKeon and Irene Campbell, arrived on a colourful float.

Below: Misses Brooklands 1964 and 1965, with the maids, stand on the front of the stage in a setting that could only be called a fairyland.

PAGEANTRY AND COLOUR AT THE BOWL

Mayoress Mrs A.G.Honnor places the sash of office around Miss Brooklands 1965, Miss Jeanine Williams.

A jewel of a singer from an oyster shell on stage was Auckland's Ann Stott

Send a friend a "PHOTO NEWS"
(It will be appreciated)

Nymphs in this colourful presentation and proclamation walked across the waters of the lake at the bowl.

Polished performers: the Cambridge quartette on stage with the Miss Brooklands girls.

LAVISH BOWL PRODUCTION

As the barge carrying Miss Brooklands bumped into the landing stage, one of the maids was nearly shaken off her feet, but managed to steady herself before a catastrophe occurred.

Hastings Blossom Queen Nicky Herne emerges from gigantic tulip petals

Mrs Honnor gets a posy from Peggy George

Raewyn Murray gets smiles from Mrs Honnor and Mrs Aderman.

Mayoral Garden Party For Miss Brooklands Contestants

A garden party at Pukekura Park, attended by the Miss Brooklands contestants, was recently given by the Mayor and Mayoress of NP, Mr and Mrs A.C.Honnor. Official guests included the member for NP, Mr and Mrs E.P.Aderman, and the chaperones and judges of the entrants.

Mr Aderman has a chat to Lyn McKeon and Irene Campbell, Miss Brookland's maids.

Not so exacting as parliamentary business..... Mr Aderman talks to Lyn McKeon, Irene Campbell, Raewyn Vincent and Patricia Thorne.

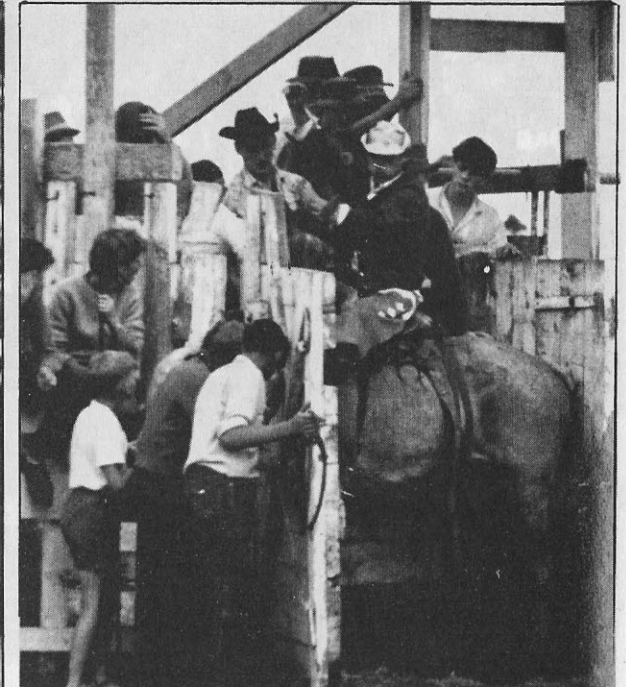

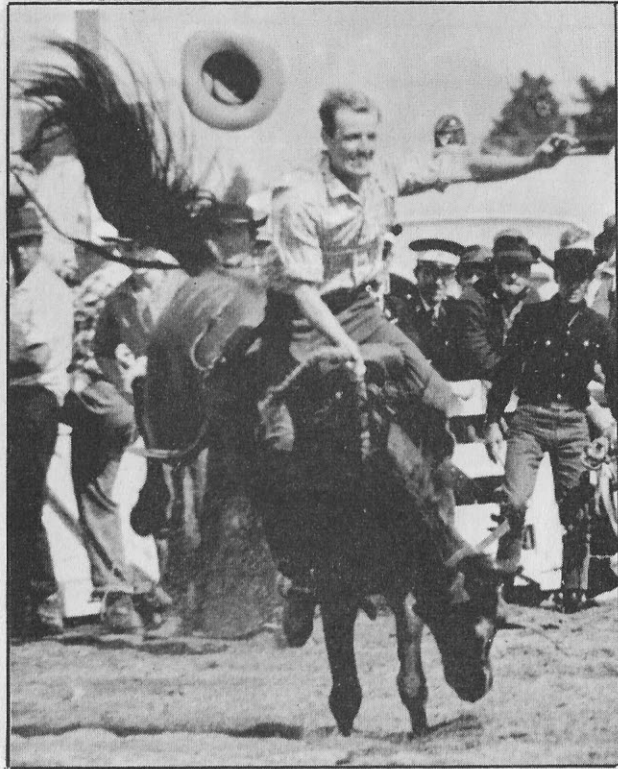

Rodeo Drew Large Crowd

With riders from all over New Zealand attending, the annual rodeo at Stratford drew a large crowd, with gate takings well up on last year. This year, they had some particularly mean horses to ride, and thrills and spills were the order of the day.

Above: Nobody seemed to worry about these bucking broncs. This one buried its nose into the ground, but the rider stayed on.

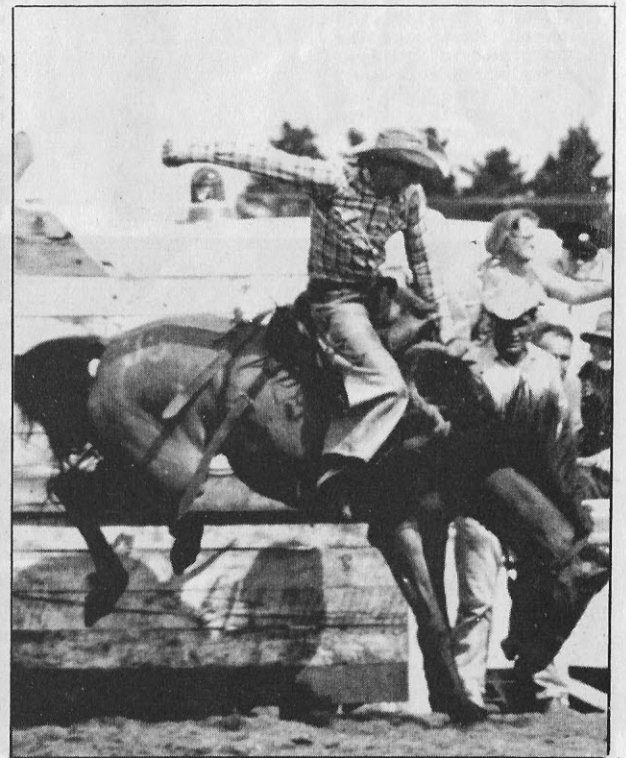

Below, left: E. Raynor (Wanganui) loses his hat but not his saddle, as he grits his teeth to stay on the rolling back.

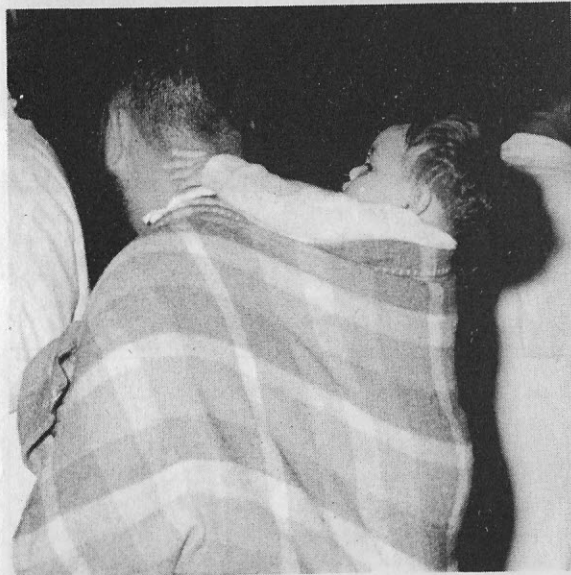

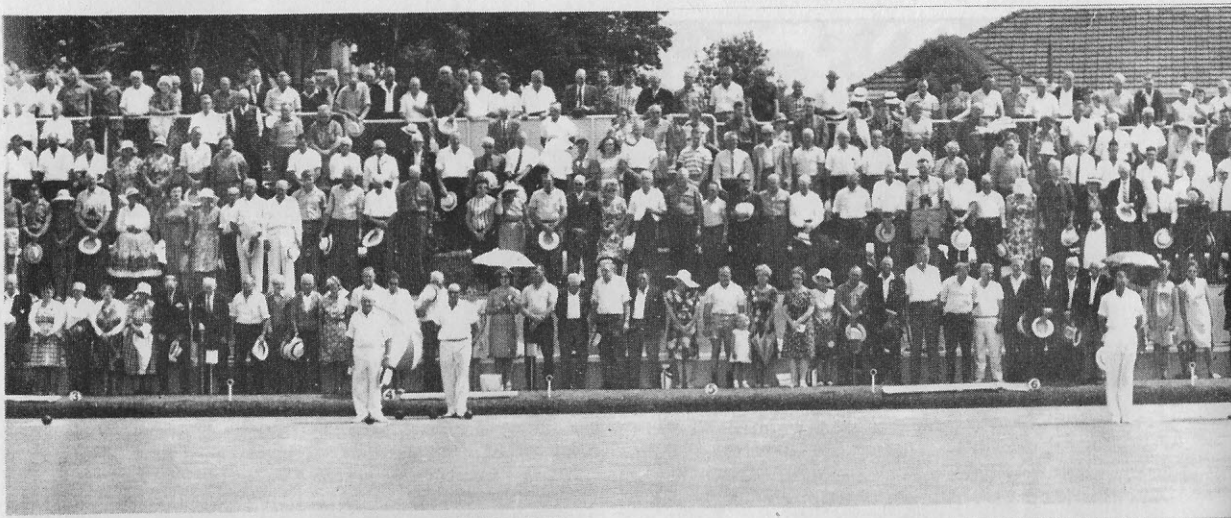

Below, right: M.D. Kendall (Tokorimu) gets a high ride, but stayed on for the required time.

RODEO (continued)

The rodeo at Stratford provided plenty of action for the large crowd of spectators. Above, left: Roger O'Neill (Wanganui) only got outside the shute gates and his mount started with some fine bucking. Above, right: Some didn't get outside the shute. This one refused to move and had to be freed. Below, right: The feature horse was another which wouldn't be ridden. He got out of the shute and put on a display of his own. Below, right: J. Griffiths (NP) had a good ride on his mount, and lasted the time out.

Roving Camera

Above: A mark of respect for the late Sir Winston Churchill, as spectators and players stand silent for two minutes during the recent Open tournament.

Left: Back to by-gone days. Caught by our camera at Okato recently.

Right: Dog with a broken leg. Glen of Eltham recently got the worst of an argument with a car.

Below, left: Glee club of the NP Savages performing at the recent Miss Brookland's concert.

Below, right: Mr F. Beurepaire and his daughter performed on the xylophone at the same concert.

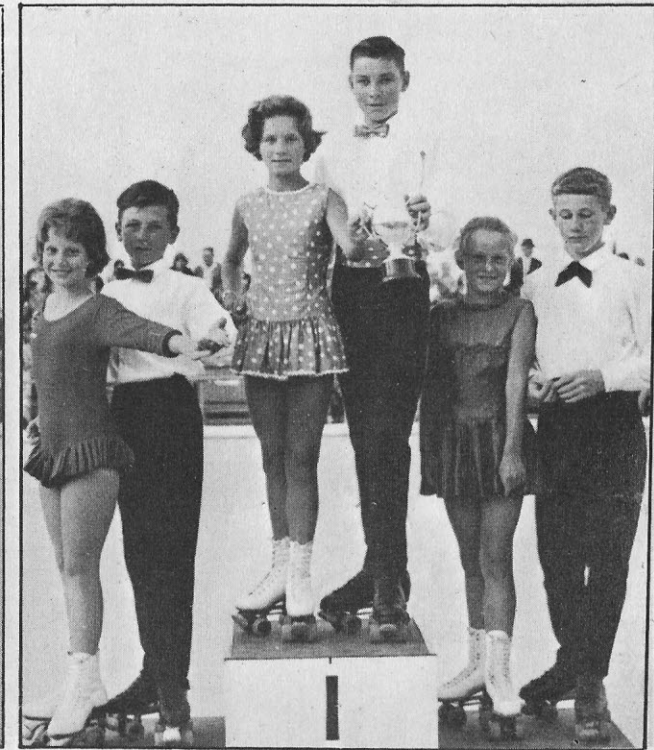

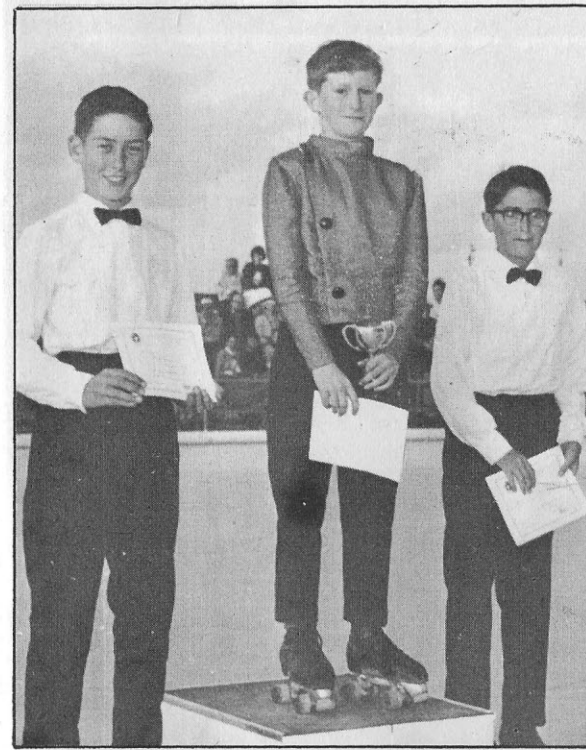

Right: HEAYSMAN-JAMIESON. At Holy Trinity, Fitzroy, Wendy June, 2nd daughter of Mr and Mrs W. Jamieson, NP, to Kenneth Malcolm, 2nd son of Mr and Mrs G.V. Heaysman, England. The bride's attendants were her three sisters, Heather Horn, Sheila and Sonja Jamieson. Best man was Mike Fugget, and the groomsmen were Stein Johnson. The future home, N.P.

Left: HARPUR-PARKER. At St. Mary's Church, NP, Helen Mary, elder daughter of Mr and Mrs C. R. Parker, NP, to Robert William, youngest son of Mrs R. Harpur, Hangatiki, and the late Mr Harpur. Matron of honour was Allison Johnston, Opunake, and the bridesmaids were Anne Dravitzki and Rosemary Parker, both NP. The best man was Jack Harpur, brother of the groom, Thames, and the groomsmen were John Parker, brother of the bride, NP. Future home will be Te Awamutu.

Right: VARGA-LISTER. At St. Mary's Church, NP, Gloria Lorraine, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs D. Lister, NP, to Attila Anthony, the youngest son of Mr and Mrs J. Varga, Wellington. Matron of honour was Judy Marshall, NP, and the bridesmaid was Robyn Lister, sister of the bride, NP. John Varga, brother of the groom, Wellington, was the best man, and Lotzie Varga, NP, was the groomsmen. Debbie Lister, sister of the bride, was the flower-girl. Future home, Wellington.

Skating Championships In N.P.

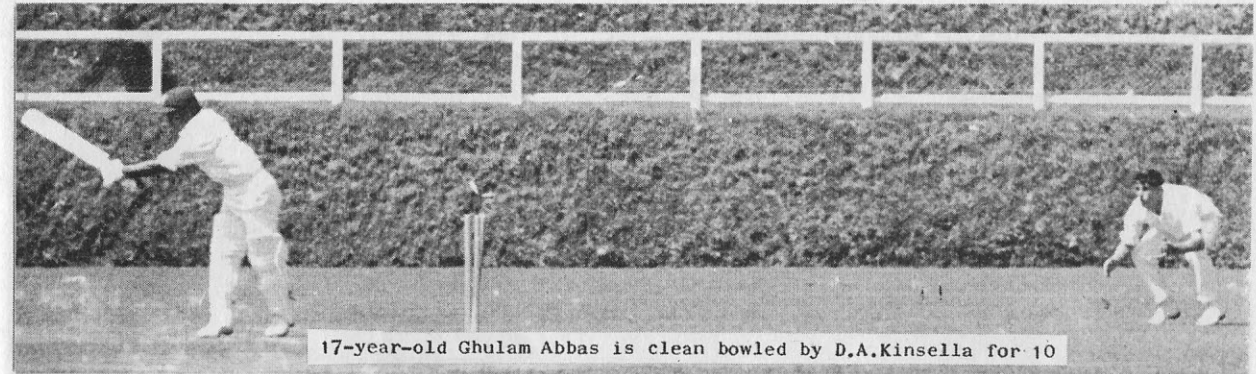

The holiday period saw over 250 competitors from all parts of New Zealand invade the East End skating rink for the national championships. Blessed with fine weather, the champs were the most successful yet held, with much praise from visitors regarding the fine rink at East End. Above, left: Winners of the junior dance pair were Janet and Laurie Callender, left, with Kevin Barriball and Jannette Morriss in second place. Above, right: Girls' relay teams, with Hastings first and the New Plymouth team in second place. Below: At the official opening ceremony when a flight of pigeons was released. (VOGUE STUDIOS PHOTOS).

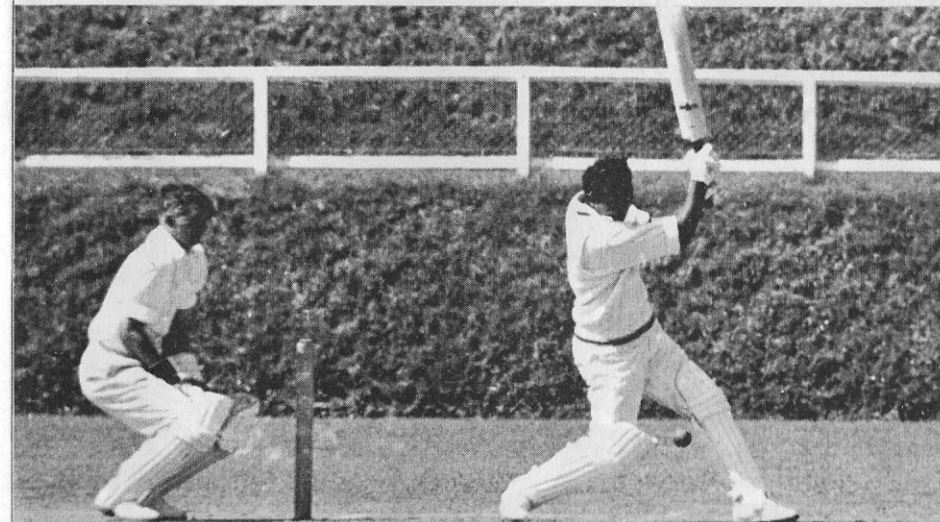

SKATING (continued)

Above, left: Winner of the senior ladies' novice solo event was Denise Lovett, shown here receiving her cup and certificate. Above, right: Another honour fell to New Plymouth, when the local team was adjudged the best-dressed team at the champs. Here Walter Grey, captain of the local team, receives the trophy from Mr F.K.Bromley, president of the association. Below: Scene at the official opening when all the teams paraded before the official party. (VOGUE STUDIOS).

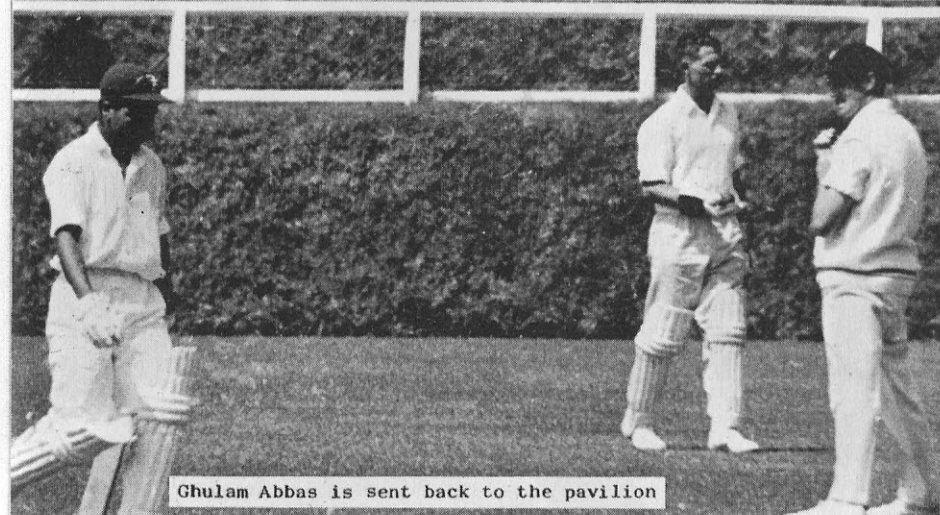

Pakistan v. Central Districts

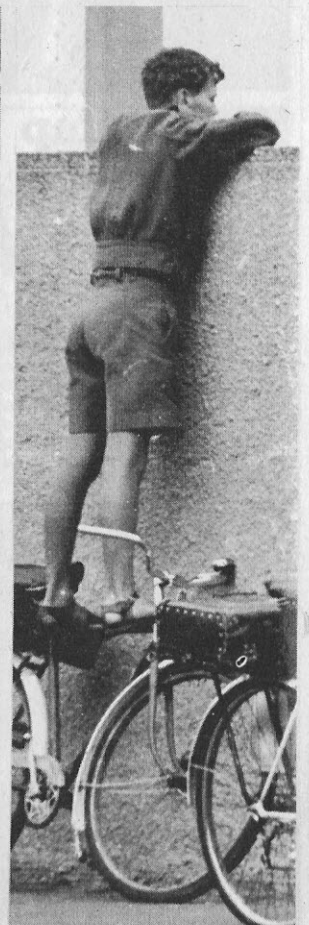

At the time of going to press, this interesting cricket match was being played at Pukekura Park and, by what we saw, the outcome looked bright for the Central Districts team, which was playing keen bright cricket. A good showing in this game could mean a trip overseas with the NZ team in the near future.

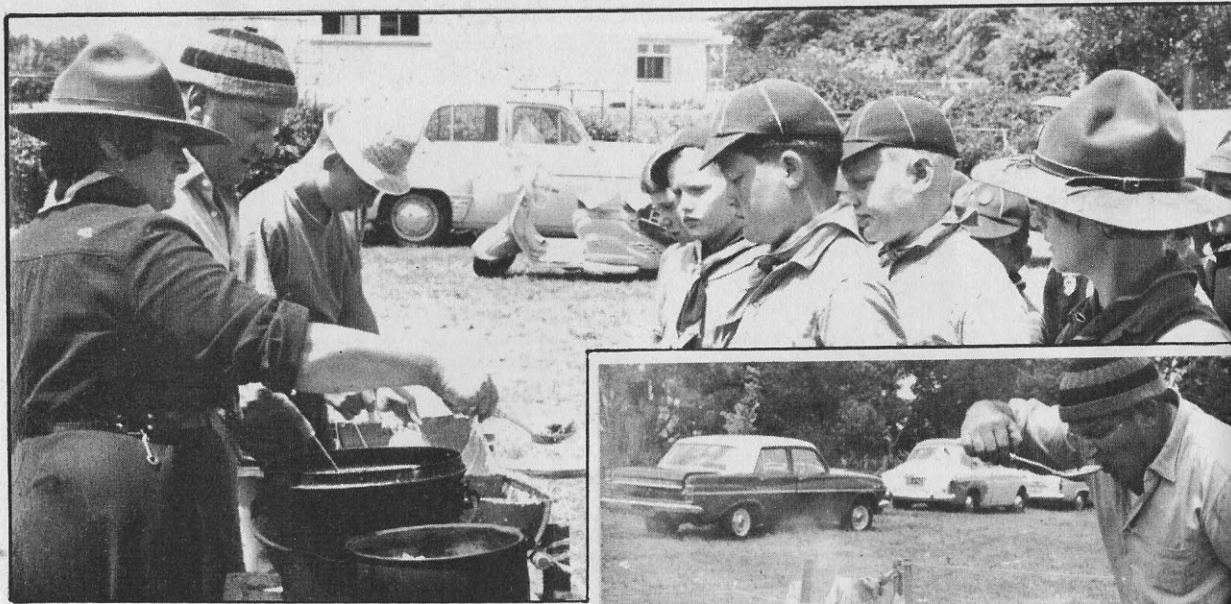

Intikhab Alam slashes a ball to the boundary in his bright knock of 33

Ghulam Abbas is sent back to the pavilion

There were about 1100 spectators in the ground, and a few outside after school came out.

Cub Camp Was Fun

Eighty North Taranaki Cubs recently spent a holiday under canvas at Lepperton, where they had a wonderful time. It is not the practice for Cubs to camp, but this will surely be a forerunner of many more, since both Cub masters and Cubs had such a whale of a time.

With the Cub masters dreaming up all sorts of activities for the boys, the camp was voted a complete success.

Above: When the chow bell sounded, the boys came running and settled in the dining tent for a meal prepared camp style.

Right: Chief cook for the camp, Scoutmaster George Bartlett samples the victuals watched by cook's assistant, Murray Hunter.

Below: Chow time was the most popular, as the strenuous activities promoted healthy appetites.

CUB CAMP AT LEPPERTON

Above: Senior Scouts and Cub masters organised this very successful Cub camp at Lepperton. Shown here are the groups lined up ready for further activities, most of which were competitions, stimulating keep interest.

Below: Before each meal, the Cub commissioner, Mrs Coleman, led the boys in singing their grace.

Bottom: The most patient queues of the day were the meal queues.

Miss Brooklands Winner Announced At Concert

The New Plymouth War Memorial Hall was filled to capacity for the concert evening when the winner of the Miss Brooklands quest was announced. The concert, with entertainment by the New Plymouth Savage Club was highlighted by the appearance on stage of the Miss Brooklands contestants, above.

Below, left: Miss Brooklands 1964, Sharon Johns, right, presents a bouquet to Miss Brooklands 1965, Jeanine Williams. Below, right: Judges for the contest were, from left, Mr E.Linden, Mrs D.Stark, Joyce Campbell, Mr W.Charman and Sue Nolan.

