Fields were tightly packed for this hazardous course

Moto-Cross A Thriller

An international Moto-Cross held recently at Beach Road, Omata, attracted thousands who were treated to some of the best motor-cycle riding ever witnessed in the province. With riders from overseas setting a cracking pace of an international standard, it was to the credit of the local riders that they kept close to the tails of the acknowledged world experts. Spills were very few, witness to the excellence of the riding.

Arthur Harris (England) handled his machine well.

Tim Gibbes (Australia) leads Swiss champion Max Morf.

I.G. Manderson (Stratford) gets slight assistance

This part of the course had a gradient of 1-in-1

INTERNATIONAL RIDERS AT MOTO-CROSS

Thousands of spectators lined the hazardous course at Beach Road to watch some of the best riders, including world champions, negotiate this twisting, hilly course at speeds that seemed almost impossible. It was a feast of scramble riding and a joy to watch.

Arthur Harris (England) leads New Zealand's Ken Cleghorn (Palmerston North)

This rider came to grief but received quick assistance to be on his way again.

Queen's Badge For Okato Guide

For the first time in the history of the 1st Okato Guide Company, one of its members, Diane Gray, was awarded the Queen's Badge for her work in Guiding. An evening in her honour, and attended by Guides from other companies around the coast, was held in the Okato High School Hall, with a good attendance also of parents and friends.

New Year's Day At Ngamotu

To us, it seems a shame that our Ngamotu Beach wasn't used for carnival purposes this year. Just look at the picture below. That is the sort of crowd that CAN be attracted to any sort of a show, yet this year the beach committee decided to make it a one-day affair. Surely only a little bit of professional organising is necessary to attract the thousands of NP holiday-makers to this delightful beach. Pictured at right are the girls entered for the Miss NZ Beach Girl contest. Won by Jan Barklay of NP, number 13.

The Ngaruawahia Civic Choir reflected in the lake for its finale

Festival's Successful Opening

The Festival got off to a good start with an attendance of 6000 on the opening night for a variety show which proved popular. The second night, with performers from the Ngaruawahia Civic Choir in the first half, then a rather drab show called "Accent on Colour" in the second half, attracted only 2000 people. More entertainers of national and international standard must be brought to the Festival to ensure its success in future years. A much greater effort has been made this year to make the Festival more attractive, and the success depends entirely on the type of entertainment offered. New Plymouth's greatest attraction seems at last to be coming into its own.

Stratford Racing Club's Cocktail Party

The Racing Club at Stratford held a cocktail party during their recent two-day meeting. At the party were members of the Club plus most of the visiting owners and trainers who all seemed to enjoy this function. This was the first time that such a party had been held and by the comments of those present will certainly not be the last.
