OUR COVER

Sitting ducks! Well, who wouldn't be a sitting duck for such a pretty shooter? We jacked this picture up on one of our local park lakes, just to make the mouths of the ardent shooters water. Wouldn't it be lovely to get among so many? Our shooter is Dianne Maclean a pretty young sharp-shooter if ever we saw one.

Below: Rural scene, taken of one of the older type of bridges over the Waitara river.

MARRIED

Below, left: MASTERS-HALE. At Holy Trinity Church, Fitzroy, Margaret Catherine, only daughter of Mr and Mrs C. J. Hale, Hillsborough, to Garry Raymond, elder son of Mr and Mrs C. Masters, Waiuku.

Below: O'BRIEN-BURNES. At St. Margaret's Church, Glasgow, Marietta, second daughter of Mr and Mrs Burnes, Glasgow, to Christopher John, only son of Mr and Mrs J. C. O'Brien, NP.

SILVER WEDDING

Left: Mr and Mrs Fred Tipier, Rawhitiroa, who recently celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at a private family party in New Plymouth.

MISS PERSONALITY CONTESTANTS

The second year of the Miss Personality contest, organised by Del Hine for the Winter Show, was another success, with enough entries to make the contest just more than interesting. Here we publish as many of the entries as were at the recent evening at the Aladdin Coffee Lounge organised in their honour. Above, from left: Lesley O'Connell, Hawera. Gwitha Alexander, Waitara. Ann Tresseder, Hawera, and Alison Fussell, Waitara. Below, from left: Marilyn King, Waitara, Carole Quickfall, NP, Lorraine Barnham, NP, and Joy Harold, Waitara. Bottom, from left: Beverley Leach, Waitara, Joy Kennedy, NP, Sue Olsen, NP, and Janine Ritchie, Waitara.

★ ★ ★ MISS PERSONALITY ★ ★ ★

Winner of the Miss Personality title at the recent Winter Show this year was 18-year-old Maureen Honeyfield, a bank clerk from Waitara.

It was a fitting selection. Maureen has a good credit balance of grace and charm, and will never be overdrawn in her personality account.

Matter of fact, we had picked her to win long before the finals...good luck, Maureen!

Married

Left: RUMBAL-CLEGG. At St. James's Church, NP, Barbara, twin daughter of Mr and Mrs R. S. Clegg, NP, to Allan Charles, second son of Mr and Mrs C. A. Rumbal, Urenui. The bridesmaid was Beverley Clegg, twin sister of the bride, NP, and the best man was Jim Rumbal, brother of the groom, Urenui. Future home, New Plymouth.

Right: MILL-ROBERTS. At St. Mary's Anglican Church, NP, Sheryn, only daughter of Mr and Mrs C. H. Roberts, NP, to Paul, youngest son of Mr and Mrs J. Mill, Wanganui. The bridesmaids were Sonia Philp, Ray Girling, and Frances Bridger, all of NP. The best man was Leigh Grant, Wanganui, and the groomsmen were Cameron Gray, and Neil Stoch, both from Wanganui. Future home, Wanganui.

Left: HASKIN-BROOKING. At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, NP, Lynette, younger daughter of Mr and Mrs G. B. Brookings, NP, to Ivan, eldest son of Mr and Mrs L. E. Haskin, NP. The bridesmaids were Beverly Brookings, sister of the bride, NP, Heather Gower, NP, and Kerry Joy Brookings, NP. The best man was Neville Julian, Okato, and the groomsmen were Dennis Haskin, brother of the groom, Okato. Future home, Matamata.

BASKETBALLERS INVADE CITY

Teams from Auckland, Wellington, Palmerston North, Wanganui and the Hutt recently converged on New Plymouth for the annual Queen's Birthday Indoor Basketball tournament. Three halls were in constant use over the period, and some of the country's top players were on view. Right: John McManus (5) has a shot at the net, while Russ Brown waits for the ball to drop in the game Rebels v. Aces. Left: Bitzers, Hamilton, in play against a team from Wanganui. Below, left and centre: Rebels and Aces in play. Below, right: The Bitzers put one in the net.

MONEY, MONEY, MONEY!

We went round with a broom after these lorries, above, had moved off from their parking possie in Devon Street recently, but alas, nothing but a few grease spots. They were delivering to the local banks the new decimal currency coins. Fortunately, New Plymouth is not too well off for bank robbers, but had there been any, we feel sure that our money would have been safe, with all the policemen there were about. It was obvious that no chances were being taken—good thing too. Below: These two men are carrying quite a load of dough into the Commercial Bank, well and truly guarded by our local boys in blue.

TARANAKI GYM CHAMPS

Some of New Zealand's top gymnastic performers recently came to New Plymouth for the Taranaki Gymnastic Championships held in the new YMCA Stadium. Not only were there plenty of performers, but the organisers must have been particularly pleased with the large number of spectators present. Above, left: Phillipa Karne, Hawkes Bay, was a good performer. Above, centre: Hans Vanderschantz, Wanganui. Above, right: Grant Price, Auckland. Left: Difficult exercise by Grant Price, Auckland. Below, left: Joanna Willis, Napier. Below, centre: Max Sherlock, Wanganui. Below, right: Craig Lester.

At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, NP, Marion, elder daughter of Mr and Mrs C.R.Hanser, Pukearuhe, to Neil, younger son of Mr and Mrs L.J.Sanger, Omata. The bridesmaids were Verna Brough, Waitara, and Dorothy Hanser, sister of the bride, Pukearuhe. The best man was Neil Cowley, NP, and the groomsman was Donald Mattock, Omata. Future home, NP.

Right: ADLAM-REDDING.
At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, NP, Elizabeth, third daughter of Mr and Mrs J.A.Redding, Okato, to Alden Royce, eldest son of Mrs Adlam, NP, and the late Mr R. Adlam. The bridesmaids were Mary Lewis, Te Kuiti, and Violet Redding, sister of the bride, NP. The best man was James Redding, brother of the bride, Te Kuiti, and the groomsman was Bruce Main, NP. The flower-girl was Angela Adlam, NP, and the page boy was Brendon Scown, Tataraimaka. Future home, New Plymouth.

At St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Inglewood, Pauline Ann, elder daughter of Mr and Mrs A.T.Dodunski, Inglewood, to Barry George, youngest son of the late Mr and Mrs G. Herlihy. The bridesmaids were Rose Dodunski, sister of the bride, Inglewood, and Ann Uhlenberg, Eltham. The best man was Doug Herbertson, Taupo, and the groomsman was David Dodunski, brother of the bride, Inglewood. Future home, Inglewood.

SMA SHERS!

We don't really mean that the girls above, are responsible for the smash below. What we do mean, is that the girls in the photograph above are smashers. They are members of the 1959-60 draft of dental nurses, and they were holding a reunion at the Devon Lodge recently. They came from all parts of the district, with some coming from further afield. If we had any teeth, we wouldn't mind them operating on us. The smashers below were a couple of drivers who got involved down Stratford way during the Queen's Birthday weekend. Fortunately no serious injury resulted from this smash.

BOYS' BRIGADE HANDBALL

Hordes of lads of the Boys' Brigade from nearly every company in the province recently attended their annual handball competition at the Stratford War Memorial Hall. We got a few pictures there, and were amazed at the amount of effort these boys put into their game, and a boisterous one it is too. It was a wonder to us that there weren't a few cracked craniums. This is the type of organised sport that is good for the growing lads of today. Before the competitions started the boys attended their devotional part of the evening, above, at this parade. Below: Goalie Colin McKinney saves this one from Murray Speck. Right: It was a tough game, played more on the knees than the feet. Here's a spill watched by John Galley, left and Phillip Alley. Below, right: Kevin Ashworth and Phillip Alley get into a tussle on the floor.

There was little doubt about the enthusiasm shown by the boys for their respective companies as cheers were very evident as each side scored. Above: Here's a group who cheered loud and long as their team scored. Below: Ian Jackson comes through after a skirmish in front of the goal. Above right: Ross Andrews and Warren McCullough tussle for the ball in front of goal. Right: Richard Collins lets a fierce one go towards the goal, only to be stopped by Kevin Ashworth. Below, right: Richard Collins and Warren McCullough get into another one of their frequent battles.

MAMMOTH MILK SILO

An added attraction for visitors to the Winter Show was this mammoth 25,000 gallon milk silo, manufactured by the NDA in Hawera, and on view in Doug Allen's Car Sales during show week. It was brought from Hawera by road, and the job of standing it on end began. It was a piece of cake for the two cranes which did the job. It was a case of slowly does it, but the silo was stood on end without the slightest scratch. Above, left: The silo is backed into the area where it stood. Above, right: Start of the lift, an apparently easy matter for the two cranes. Below, left: Member of the firm which made the tank fixes the crane's hook onto the silo. Below, right: There it is, easy as shelling peas.

CHATHAM CUP WIN TO MOTUROA

Married

Left: SYMES-HALFORD. At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, NP, Patty, third daughter of Mr and Mrs G. Halford, NP, to James, twin son of Mr and Mrs J. Symes, NP. The bridesmaid was Gwen Halford, sister of the bride, NP, and the best man was David Duffy, Pihama. Future home, Pihama.

Right: CAVEY-WILKINSON. At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, NP, Kaye, only daughter of Mr and Mrs D. Wilkinson, NP, to Peter, son of Mr and Mrs G.E. Cavey, Okato. The bridesmaids were Jane Brown, Inglewood, and Winsome Hancock, NP. The best man was Tony Luckin, Okato, and the groomsmen were Bill Rothwell, Okato. Future home, Manaia.

Left: SOFFE-SOLE. At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, NP, Janice, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs J.P. Sole, Brixton, to Alan, eldest son of Mr and Mrs A.C. Soffe, Tikorangi. The bridesmaids were Ann Scott, NP, Jeanette Davidson, Wellington, and Ketha Sole, sister of the bride, Brixton. The best man was Trevor Schimanski, Waitara, and the groomsmen were George Parker, Waitara, and Graeme Sole, brother of the bride, Brixton. The flower-girls were Linda Soie, sister of the bride, Brixton, and Stephanie Portway, Brixton. Future home, Brixton.

WILL THIS BRIDGE CREATE TRAFFIC PROBLEMS?

The new bridge linking the welbourn area and Mangorei road will be a busy bridge when it is completed—anyway, that is our pick. The bridge spans the Henui river and will, no doubt, relieve a lot of the ~~TRAFFIC~~ burden on Devon Street, north of Coronation Avenue, but...and here's the problem, what will the Mangorei outlet be like? Could become a traffic hazard, in that the junction of Mangorei Road and Awanui Street will be an awkward junction to negotiate. Here it is in the photo below, with Awanui Street on the right and sloping sharply away. Once the bridge is in use, much more care will have to be exercised here.

LARGE CROWD AT POINT-TO-POINT

There was a larger crowd than usual at the annual Point-to-Point steeplechase meeting at Onaero. Perhaps the fine weather brought more people out, but the quality of the meeting was of a much higher standard than in the past, and we feel enjoyed more because of the large fields taking part. Above: Part of the large crowd in the parking area. Left: K. Myers on Sox is shown having a good round. Below, left: Jill Mumby, complete with pigtail, rides her horse Minihaha. Below: The little brother was always on hand to take care of the family pony.

Married

Left: GORRY-MOLES. At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, NP, Adrienne, only daughter of Mr and Mrs C. W. Moles, NP, to Warren, eldest son of Mr and Mrs D. Gorry, Okoki. The bridesmaids were Gail Armstrong, NP, Debrae Baker, NP, and Sandra Smith, Awakino. The best man was Derek Moles, brother of the bride, NP, and the groomsman was Philip Gorry, brother of the groom. Future home, Okoki.

Right: POWER-POLLARD. At St. Mary's Anglican Church, NP, Frances Joyce, only daughter of Mr and Mrs A. S. Pollard, Pungarehu, to James Ian, eldest son of Mr and Mrs J. A. Power, Hawera. The bridesmaids were Pauline Lawn, Ohaupo, and Kathleen Ryan, Pungarehu. The best man was Ross Webby, Richmond, and the groomsman was Murray Granger, Waimate. The flower-girls were Allison and Fiona Campbell, Rahotu. Future home, Wellington.

Left: JOYCE-PEPPERELL. At St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Waitara, Rita Janet, second daughter of Mr and Mrs N. Pepperell, Waitara, to Anthony Francis, eldest son of Mr and Mrs T. Joyce, Levin. The bridesmaids were Carole Lucas and Sandra Pepperell, sister of the bride, both of Waitara. The best man was Clarrie Inward, Wellington, and the groomsman was Murray Hall, Inglewood.

NEW RAHOTU TOLL EXCHANGE

Progress at Rahotu. They are now the proud possessors of an automatic telephone exchange. The cut-over ceremony was recently performed by the member for Egmont, Mr V. S. Young. Top, left: Mr Young unveils the plaque commemorating the event. Above: Man with plenty of technical bits and pieces to see to is Mr P. Kaye, Opunake, to which exchange Rahotu is now linked. Above, right: Posing by the plaque is Mr V. S. Young, Mr E. W. De Lisle and Mr K. Bruce, District Engineer. Right: Mr Young makes the first call to Parliament Buildings. Below: Officials at the ceremony.

COMMUNITY HALL AT FERNDALE

Above: Progress is proceeding apace on the new community hall at Ferndale. This has been a community effort and speaks volumes for the people who live in that area.

SAVAGES AWAY ON SOUTHERN TRIP

Below: Grouped around their chartered plane are the NP Savages, who recently flew south on a raid on Christchurch. From reports, they had a rip-roaring time, and that's about what they set out to do. They had a suitable model memento, left, to present to the Christchurch club.

O.B.E. FOR MAYOR

New Plymouth's Mayor, Mr A.G. Honnor, was honoured recently when he was made an Officer of the Order of the British Empire (O.B.E.) in recognition of his outstanding service to the community. Mr Honnor has been a member of the New Plymouth City Council since 1947. He was elected Mayor of the city in 1956. Congratulations, sir, on an honour well deserved!

LEPPERTON DAIRY COMPANY'S 75th JUBILEE

There was a very good muster for the celebration of the 75th Jubilee of the Lepperton Dairy Company recently. On our photograph above, the chairman of the company, Mr H.E. Blyde, makes his welcome speech at the start of the proceedings. Next to him, hand on chin, is the guest of honour, chairman of the NZ Dairy Board, Sir Andrew Linton. Below: Here, one can see that the hall was fairly full for the occasion. The evening consisted of a dinner, with items and speeches, most of which dealt with the past in the history of the company, but with some on a very much more topical note, the future of the industry.

FORUM AND OPINION

City Hotels

Chairman of the Taranaki Licensing Committee, Mr A.W. Yortt, SM, told the annual general meeting of the committee that the Breakwater Hotel, above, "...is a disgrace...and surprising that a company of the NZ Breweries' standing is prepared to sell liquor from it." Fire gutted the top floor of the hotel some months ago, and as yet not much has been done to bring the hotel up to any reasonable standard. And how many YEARS ago is it that the Grosvenor Hotel was burned down? Yet this alleged "hotel" is still operating, but only as a place to drink. We heartily endorse Mr Yortt's remarks "...that it seems that in both cases, (the Breakwater and Grosvenor hotels) the company is only interested in dispensing liquor, and is very little interested in the welfare of its customers."

SCHOOL CHAMBER MUSIC CONCERT

A chamber music contest recently held at the NPGHS was very well attended. The programme was varied as contestants came from as far as Wanganui to take part. Above: Winner of the contest was the Egmont quartet of the NPCHS, comprising Sue Burgess, Cushla Watters, Louise Allen and Clare Lamb. Below: The Petre group from the Wanganui College were Margaret Hunt, Richard Howarth, Jennifer Mahon and Anne Fraser.

Above: The Friday trio of the NPGHS were Robyn Wilkinson, Frances Nicholl and Judith Robbins. Below: Another quartet from the NPGHS were the Voiciano quartet of Carolyn Ashworth, Noeleen Stanley, Stephanie Cocks and Juliet Connor.

Above: Placed second in the School Chamber Music Contest was this quartet from the Wanganui Garrison Band. They are Ron Caldwell, Alex Rowan, Dean Hurst and Eugene Puchataua.

Below: Travelling from Stratford was this quintet from the St. Mary's School, Stratford. They were a wind quintet and played items from Mozart. The girls are Margaret Rogers, Suzanne Cumming, Elizabeth Hammonds, Bronwyn Rogers and Lesley Grant.

Married

At St. Mary's Anglican Church, NP, Glenys, younger daughter of Mr and Mrs C.K.Price, Oa-kura, to Nick, younger son of Mr and Mrs E.W. Williams, Palmerston North. The bridesmaid was Shirley Bell, Oa-kura, and the best man was Mike Negus. Taka-puna. Future home, Palm-erston North. (VOGUE STUDIO).

Below: WILLIS-PENNY.
At St. John's Presbyter-ian Church, Hawera, Beryl Margaret, fourth daughter of Mr Penny, Hawera, and the late Mrs Penny, to Lindsay Ronald, third son of Mr and Mrs H.G.Willis, Matapu. The bridesmaids were Marlene and Raywyn Penny, sisters of the bride, Hawera, and Ruth Willis, sister of the groom. Matapu. The best man was Ray Willis, bro-ther of the groom, Mata-pu, and the groomsmen were Brian Northgate, Okaiawa, and Gary Stampa, Palmerston North. Future home, Ma-tapu. (DAVID PAUL STUDIO)

JUDO EXPERTS IN TOWN

There were some good exhibitions of judo at the Trades Hall recently when competitions were held. Above: Tom Pennell, Auckland, and L.Pirikahu get to grips with each other. Below: The bout between Pat Radich, NP, and Peter Schumaker, Auckland, was a beauty. Above, right: I.McKeskell, Whangarei, floors his opponent J.Johnson, Wanganui. FINNERTY ROAD SCHOOL JUBILEE

Fifty years of the three R's was recently celebrated over the Queen's Birthday Weekend at the Finnerty Road School, where we know a good time was had by all. Right: The first day pupils present were, from left, John Suter, Adrian Shute, Mrs Mona Williams, Mrs Florence Barr and Mrs Lorna Phelps. Below, right: John Suter and Mrs Williams cut the jubilee cake. It can easily be seen from the other pictures that an enjoyable time was had. (HENRY MCGEE).

Left: LANGTON-RODERICK. At St. Mary's Anglican Church, Hawera, Ann, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs R. Roderick, Patea, to Sam, fifth son of Mr and Mrs F. J. Langton, Opunake. The bridesmaid was Patricia Roderick, sister of the bride, Patea, and the best man was Rex Langton, brother of the groom, Opunake. The flower-girl was Anne Langton. Future home, Hawera. (DAVID PAUL STUDIO)

Below: NICHOLSON-MEADS. At the Gospel Hall, Eltham, Shirley Anne, elder daughter of Mr and Mrs A. F. Meads, Hawera, to David Graham, eldest son of Mr and Mrs J. Nicholson, Kaponga. The bridesmaids were Jocelyn Meads, sister of the bride, Hawera, and Lorraine Nicholson, sister of the groom, Kaponga. The best man was Kennard Edgecombe, Kaponga, and the groomsman was Bruce Rolston, Waitara. The future home is Manaia. (DAVID PAUL STUDIO)

LOOKING BACK

Below, left: Here's a sight that was all too familiar in the city early in the year 1962. You've got it--it was the framework for the new Whiteley Church roof, now a familiar landmark.

Wedding Bells

Left: HOWE-WHALEN. At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, NP, June Beverly, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs M. Whalen, NP, to Robert William John, eldest son of Mr and Mrs C.W. Howe, Bell Block. The bridesmaids were Barbara Whalen, sister of the bride, NP, and Adrienne Howe, sister of the groom, Bell Block. The best man was Ken Willetts, Stratford, and the groomsman was Douglas Boyd, Stratford. Future home, Bell Block.

Right: ROWAN-WAITE. At the Methodist Church, Inglewood, Ronlee, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs R.T. Waite, Inglewood, to Stuart, only son of Mr and Mrs D.W. Rowan, Inglewood. The bridesmaids were Marilyn and Lorraine Waite, sisters of the bride, both from Inglewood, and Sheryl and Raewyn Angell, Eltham. The best man was David Woollier, and the groomsman was Ed Sheather. Future home, Inglewood.

Left: SMEAL-HAYLOCK At St. Mary's Anglican Church, NP, Jocelyn, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs A.D. Haylock Okato, to Douglas, only son of Mr and Mrs L.A. Smeal, Whangarei. The bridesmaids were Bet Haylock, sister of the bride, Okato and Janic Smeal, sister of the groom, Dunedin. Bria Wills from Wellington was the best man and the groomsman was Harley Rogers, Whangarei. Future home, Auckland.

WHO IS THIS PERSON?

Below: Whose face is this? If you are the lucky person, then all you have to do is to identify yourself at the "Photo News" office in the ANZ Bank Building in Devon Street, and you will receive a year's subscription to "Photo News" (valued at $3.80). Last month's "face" has not as yet come forward, and if she has not claimed her prize before this is published, then it will be too late.
