LEAGUE

TARANAKI v. MIDLANDS

Taranaki trounced Midlands in a most exciting game held in New Plymouth a couple of weeks back. Taranaki emerged victors 24 to 8. While both sides were fairly evenly matched in the first half, Taranaki scored a total of 15 points in the second half, which was a fair indication of the superiority of the local team.

DOG SHOW

The New Plymouth Kennel Club held a Dog Show a couple of weeks ago at the Army Hall. Competitors and their dogs came from near and far for the event, and a great variety of breeds were on show.

'Jendi' the Dalmatian sits beside his owner Mr. W. Scobie.

Mrs P.A. Wansbrough with 'Champion Tamandra Blue of Fraeona', the NZ Champion dog.

Karen Grice and her dog 'Kriss'.

Mrs. Wong's dog is called Nicky

Dianella and Delysia are Maltese and belong to Mrs M.C. Simpson.

Benita Armstrong and her friend 'Cromwell'.

'Rustle Rastus' is 18 months old and has just been imported from England. His owner is Mrs. J.M. Dodds.

'Tuppince' is a Shetland Sheepdog and is owned by Mrs. R.L. Pen.

Mrs. J.A. Goodall and her black miniature Poodle. The dogs name is Jackson.

German Shepherds, Daemon and Dancer.

'Peppy Piwacket of Lester' and 'Tince Town Topnotch'. Both are Australian terriers.

GIANT BALLOON

Simulated flights to the South Island were made in this giant inflatable model of a Boeing 737, which was installed outside the Atkinson Building in New Plymouth a couple of weeks ago. The 737 was an NAC promotion run in conjunction with the National Travel Convention, which was held in New Plymouth.

SOCCER

MOTUROA UNITED
v. PORIRUA

Moturoa United fought well throughout their game with Porirua United at Western Park, New Plymouth. With the score tied at one all at full time, the game went into extra time and after about twenty minutes of play Porirua United scored the goal that finally won them the game.

A Porirua player clears the ball from the sideline.

A 'Thanks Badge' was given to Mr. G. Huggard. This award is given to Lay helpers of the scouts. Graeme Thompson is presenting the badge.

A farewell gift was given to Mrs. A. Cooper who is leaving the district to live in Huntly. Mrs. Irene Mills is making the presentation.

SCOUT NEWS

Six Scouts from the West End Troop received awards that they had earned during a trip to Great Barrier Island. The presentation was made a few weeks ago and two other presentations were made at the same time. One was a 'Thanks Badge' and the other a farewell gift.

ST. JOHN CABARET

St John Ambulance Division held their annual Cabaret at the St John Hall in St Auburn Street, New Plymouth a short time ago. The band of the North Taranaki Country and Western Club provided the evening's music and a reasonable sized crowd thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

Len and Noelene Gleeson.

Vice-Versa Social

The New Plymouth Savage Club held a 'Vice Versa Social' in the Welbourne School Hall a short time back. While we thought that many of the outfits were quite hilarious, the occasion had a more serious moment when Club members, Mr & Mrs Colin Benton were farewelled. Mr Benton was presented with a life membership badge in appreciation of the work he has done for the club over the years.

Rangatira Brian Inns and Ray Thomson were really delightful 'ladies'.

Peter Gardner and Bill Kerr.

Jim Whiting (alias Miss Adams) has a quiet word to Pauline Belcher.

ROTORACT CABARET

Rotoract held a Cabaret a few weeks back in the Star Gym. Although it was only a medium sized crowd who attended the evening, they were definitely a fun crowd who set out to have a happy time and proceeded to do just that.

Sharing a joke are, Robert and Pam Cox.

Julie Rogers and Rob Ellis.

Alan Dunbar and Karen Jans

Glennis and Ian Selby in happy mood.

Phillip and Michelle Collins

Robert McGregor and Robyn Rainer.

Russell Miscall in conversation with Rodney Hills.

DANIEL BOONE SHOW

The Daniel Boone - Bulldogs Allstar Band Show came to town a few weeks back. The Show played at the New Plymouth Opera House to a very receptive audience. While some critics 'slammed' the show, we (along with most of the audience) found it to be thoroughly enjoyable.

The lead singer of Bulldogs kept the show at a lively pace.

When the group went into this comedy turn, everyone really broke up.

Daniel Boone took the stage in the second half and performed all the songs that have made him a top singer.

BIRD SHOW

The New Plymouth Caged Bird Society held a Bird Show a couple of weeks ago at the Devon Intermediate School Hall. Many species of birds were entered in various sections and much attention was focused on the show. Even though the weather was adverse, quite a large crowd attended the show, which was staged over a two day period.

A Barraband owned by G. & M. Faigan.

This Cockatiel, owned by D. Russ of Waitara, came first in the Childrens pets section.

This Golden Pheasant, was on display only. It was not entered in any class.

A Red Factor Canary owned by B. & G. Quickfall of Inglewood.

A very rare bird - an Indian Ringneck owned by G. & M. Faigan of New Plymouth.

Life Members, Mr & Mrs Les Elliott, cut the cake

Betty Reumers and Cliff Erb

Mrs Irene Offord and John Curaan.

Anniversary Dinner

The Table Tennis Association held their 25th Anniversary Dinner last month in the Conference Room at Devon Lodge Motor Hotel. A large number of people attended to celebrate the occasion which was very well organised and enjoyed by all present.

Mrs Menchi and Dave Baldwin

Jeannette and Ross Elgar, Ross is President.

Mrs Zelma Florence and Norm Parsons

'Wink' and Jocelyn Burgess with Joan Everest

The Executive of the North Taranaki Table Tennis Association.

BIG TIME WRESTLING

Big Time Wrestling came to New Plymouth again some time ago. As usual the event was held at the Y.M. Stadium and attracted scores of people to watch the drama of the ring. And the audience were not disappointed for the big men of the wrestling business turned on an excellent show.

Inter-Club League

MARIST B v. FITZROY B

Marist B won their match against Fitzroy B, 14 to 11. The main feature of the game was that Fitzroy were leading at half time 11 to 3. Marist went on in the second half to take the game from Fitzroy. Both sides fielded promising young players but it could have been a lack of fitness on the part of Fitzroy that cost them the game.

Marist's D. Halliby is caught by A. Fronton with a low tackle

MARIST A v. FITZROY A

Marist A won their match against Fitzroy A in a very close game which ended in a score of 9 to 8. The game was closely contested from start to finish and while Fitzroy were in the lead at half time, 5 to 3, the second half told the story. It was an extremely close game with many exciting moments.

SCRAMBLES

The New Plymouth Motorcycle Club held their championships at Peringa Park a few weeks ago. It was a cold miserable day and conditions were wet and muddy. While this made things a little unpleasant for competitors, it also gave spectators some thrills. One of the features of the day was an 'old timers' race.

Mud and slush is sent in all direction as B. Reader rides across a small gully.

Plunket's Curry and Rice

Fitzroy-Bell Block Plunket held a 'Curry and Rice' evening at the RSA Bowling Club Hall in New Plymouth a couple of weeks ago. A reasonable sized crowd attended the function and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. Supper was delicious but what really caught our eye was the imported cans of beer. Nothing less than large sized Victorian Bitter.

The Rice was really nice.

Evelyn and Greg Anderson.

Rosalie Goodwin was quite emphatic.

BLACK BELT IN KARATE

New Plymouth girl, Helen Upson, has become the fourth New Zealand girl who practises Karate, to obtain her black belt. Helen, who practises Kyokushinkai style Karate and is a member of the New Plymouth Rembuden Club, has been studying Karate for 4½ years. Helen's other interests include, photography, horses, motorcycles and training her dog Mokuso.

Probe is written this month from Palmerston North where Community Public Relations Officers from throughout New Zealand are gathered for their annual conference.

With me this year is Noel Watkins, the South Taranaki Information Officer. We are probably the only two not yet effected by the disease that makes the others sound, look and act potty.

We asked the assembly to supply notes for this column and this was the result.

East is East and West is West and were told by historians, "Never the twain shall meet". But this week the East (Hawke's Bay's Murray Pinfold) meets with pleasure the West (New Plymouth's ME) at our annual conference right in the middle at Palmerston North, in fact: Nev McEwan country.

New Zealand P.R.O.s quote .....

"I wish you would give the girl away" -Mel Tronson, Auckland. (I don't know what that was all about- I have my wife with me - Bryce Mc).

"I'm convinced the P.R.O. secretary is leading me astray -Mike Veal, Nelson.

"Decided to give in and go with the tide" -Jock Stevenson, Napier.

As I said at the commencement of this column (and to coin an advertising phrase) - "they're all nuts down here".

The New Zealand Travel Convention was held in New Plymouth the weekend prior to our get together in Palmerston North. I'll comment on that at some other time. Suffice to say that I arranged to meet South Canterbury P.R.O. David Hall (Timaru) on his arrival at New Plymouth airport.

Somehow our flight plans crossed he was aboard the city bound coach as I arrived at the airport. Caught up at another landing pad later that day - his accommodation house, to be precise.

Herewith David's reflections on effort, attitude, staying ability etc:

He made every attempt to assist the South Canterbury P.R.O. in view of the airport error.

One did too: so much so that David travelled as a passenger in my car to Palmerston North.

We lunched at Wanganui - where cowboy Gerald (PRO) Weekes has us goggling as he rode hell bent to the radio station aboard a motor scooter; but punctured a back tyre a few miles south and hit Palmerston North at rush hour.

We have a traffic problem, also one relating to parking.

But its not much better in Palmerston North.

Junior Karate Class

For the past nine weeks Mr M. Bishop, a second Kyu with the New Plymouth Rembuden Karate Club has been instructing a junior class every Saturday morning in the martial art of Kyokushinkai style Karate. The class ranges in age from 5 to 14 and when we made our visit there were nine students. While the instruction is still fairly basic, the kids are obviously most enthusiastic.

Mr. M. Bishop explains some finer points to his son David Bishop.

Jodan Ski, a head strike, is practised by the class.

Visit By Squash Champion

Two world ranked squash players visited New Plymouth as part of a New Zealand wide tour, a couple of weeks ago. World Champion Geoff Hunt of Melbourne and Ken Hiscoe of Sydney gave a demonstration match against each other and also were involved in a squash clinic during their short stay here.

FANCY DRESS GOLF

When the Waitara Ladies Golf Club members held their annual Fancy Dress Golf Tournament, Photo News was there to catch the fun and the hilarious attire. The girls went out of their way this year to produce unusual costumes, and some of them were really unusual.

Doreen Oxenham came as the Joker.

Ena Halcombe came as a Granny.

There were headhunters, gangsters, you name it.

even grannies and schoolboys.

We didn't wait to see how good a game they played, we left before we died of laughter.

They made quite a sight, out on the green.

You may think that radio starts and ends with the spinning of discs, but this is only the end result of much work by others.

But she is supported by a technician who runs the nerve-centre of the operation. There are panels for receiver monitoring, for outside broadcast and.....

Announcer in Charge is Graham Bolton. He is responsible for allocating work and shifts to all announcers.

A TOUR OF RADIO TARANAKI

What makes radio tick? We decided to find out so we took a tour of local radio station 2ZP. There are a great number of people involved in the running of a radio station. The disc jockey or announcer is merely the front man. For each announcer there are several 'behind the scenes men' who are all quite necessary to the smooth running of radio. These 'behind the scenes people' include technicians, programme organisers and advertising staff, to name just a few. Radio is basically about people. It is run by people for people.

Announcer Katherine Chapman mans the airwaves.

for programme monitoring where any programme from any source can be routed round the building or to the transmitters. There is a rack to monitor the programme source, which taps onto any part of the technical equipment and can locate any breakdown in transmission within seconds and finally there is the On Air point and remote unit.

At reception and handling inwards phone calls is Jeannette Cowley.

Of course like any commercial venture, advertising is the keynote to the success of the operation. Pictured is Radio Taranaki advertising man, Peter Liley discussing advertising with a client.

Gaynor Crawford is pictured selecting records for airplay.

Sally Moore's job involves arranging programmes.

Eric Weston is Sales Manager.
