

PHOTO NEWS

Brides of the Month

The demand to continue the Bride of the Month feature has been sufficient for us to carry on this series. Here are two of last month's loveliest brides, Left: Lois Mary Fleming, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs J.R.Fleming, Rahotu, who was recently married to Neville, third son of Mr and Mrs L.M.Sole, Warea, at St.Paul's Church, Spotswood. Right: Doreen Cecelia, daughter of Mr and Mrs F.J.Deacon, NP, married, at the St.Paul's Church, Spotswood, Robert John, younger son of Mr and Mrs

(PHOTOGRAPHS BY VOC)

Silver wedding

Above: Mr and Mrs W.G.Wade, NP, with their family on the occasion of their silver wedding. At back, Steve Wade, son-in-law Joe Crow, Bob Wade. In front: daughter Donna Crow with Mr and Mrs Wade.

Next Issue 13 July

New Plymouth "PHOTO NEWS"

Printed and published every fourth Saturday by LOGAN PUBLISHING CO. LTD.

A.N.Z. Bank Buildings,
Corner Currie and Devon Streets,
NEW PLYMOUTH,
Telephone 6101. P.O.Box 427.

Editor: REG EVES

Telephone 88712.

Registered for transmission by post
as a newspaper.

Prepaid subscription by post, $3.80 per annum.

OUR COVER

The main subject of the cover is, of course, Wendy-Anne Frederickson, but to add to the interest, we've taken her with a background of a ship, the new Port Chalmers, largest cargo ship ever to berth at Port Taranaki.

BACK COVER

Top: No matter where you go in the province, there's always plenty of good sights of the mountain. Here, it is in all its glory, taken from the New Plymouth Golf Course during the recent Freyberg Rosebowl tournament.

Bottom: Group of old pupils at the Waitui school jubilee held recently.

Golden wedding

Mr and Mrs Edward Eriwhata, Queen's Road, NP, with a group of family and in-laws at their recent golden wedding celebrations. (MCGEE STUDIO).

Engaged

Above, left: MILHAM-THOMSON. Joy, eldest daughter of Mrs T.E. Thomson, Hawera, to William, eldest son of Mr and Mrs W. J. Milham, Feilding. (D. PAUL).

Left: ALLERBY-HODDER. Marie Elizabeth, younger daughter of Mr and Mrs R. Hodder, Okato, to Eric Claude, third son of Mrs P.M. Allerby, Waitara, and the late Mr C.D. Allerby. (VOGUE STUDIOS).

Below, left: AYLETT-PAUL. Donna, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs R.W. Paul; NP, to Ross, youngest son of Mr and Mrs R.E. Aylett, Inglewood. (VOGUE).

Above: CHAPMAN-KETTLE. Marlene Lesley, second daughter of Mr and Mrs H.A. Kettle, Waitara, to David Edgar, second son of Mr and Mrs W.H. Chapman, Stratford. (VOGUE STUDIOS).

21st BIRTHDAY. Below: Brian, youngest son of Mr and Mrs Les Goodwin, Oakura, with sister June, his grandmother Mrs M. Morris and mother and father at his recent party.

TENNIS CHAMP. Bottom, right: Vicki Colman, a member of the Huatoki Tennis Club has been playing for only about 3 years, but in that time has collected all these wonderful trophies, including the two Taranaki titles.

TARANAKI FATALITIES

During this last month, five people have been killed on the roads of Taranaki. This is a tragic record, and we publish these pictures in the hope that they will make the average driver think while he's driving along that this COULD happen to him.

Above: This Vauxhall Viva and the car on the right were involved in a smash just south of Waitoitoi recently with the loss of three lives.

Left: This car hit a bridge down Stratford way with the result that two very young lives were lost.

RING Photo News ABOUT IT!

Right: The occupants of this old model car had a lucky escape when the car rolled over in negotiating the end of the new stretch of the new motorway. No matter if the fault is mechanical, human, or a fault in the road, this sort of thing must be stopped as the number of cars on the roads of New Zealand is growing so fast that our roads will not keep pace with that growth. The two occupants of this car escaped with injuries that luckily weren't fatal.

Married

Above: FITZPATRICK-QUICKENDEN. At the Salvation Army Citadel, NP, Patricia Raewyn, younger daughter of Mr and Mrs F.C.Quickenden, Rahotu, to Desmond Trevor, eldest son of Mr and Mrs D.FitzPatrick, New Plymouth. The bridesmaids were Janice Hunter, NP, and Rosalind FitzPatrick, sister of the groom, NP. Best man was Royce FitzPatrick, brother of the groom, NP, and the groomsmen were Russell Jeffries, NP. The flower-girls were Christine Lamberton, Wellington, and Sheryll FitzPatrick, sister of the groom, NP. Future home, New Plymouth.

Below: ECKERSLEY-BISHOP. At the Whiteley Methodist Church, NP, Janice Faye, only daughter of Mr and Mrs T.L.Bishop, NP, to Bryan George, only son of Mr and Mrs J.Eckersley, Palmerston North. The bridesmaids were Marie Hallmond, NP, and Lyndsay Neale, NP. Best man was Murray Jones, Palmerston North, and the groomsmen were Des Block, Palmerston North. The flower-girl was Michelle Brennan, NP. Future home, New Plymouth.

GETTING MARRIED? Once again we beg of you girls who are going to become brides, to let us know of that happy occasion, so that we can photograph your wedding for "Photo News". There seems to be an ever-increasing number of weddings in the district, and we give preference to those brides who do remember to ring us. And a call to us, 6101 NP, to make sure that your wedding picture appears in our publication, costs NOTHING.

N.I. FENCING CHAMPS AT NP

During the Queen's Birthday Weekend, the NP War Memorial Hall became a duelling ground for the swordsmen of the North Island as they fought out their championships. Right: Steven Hope, Ohakea, fights John Crawford, NP. Below: Graham Phelps, NP, lunges to score against G. Atkinson, Hamilton. Bottom: Phelps strikes home again against M. Davis, Auckland University club.

The champs were considered an outstanding success, much of the credit going to the host club in New Plymouth, and the work they did in organising the events.

F. B. S. C.
PROGRAMME

DESTINY WALTZ
GIPSY TAP
SUPPER WALTZ
OSLO WALTZ
VELETA
MONTE CARLO

CHARMAINE
EMPERESS WALTZ

FITZROY BENEDICTS

Fond of dancing, like a good night out? Then our advice to you is to join a Benedict club. There are many in the province, all of which cater for the people interested in dancing, and to us, there is always a big variety of dances to perform. At any of these Benedict dances, when the music starts, there isn't a wallflower to be found, so keen are these people on their dancing, and good they look with their long ball gowns, dress suits and white gloves--plus of course a particular brand of friendship not often seen these days. Above, left: Ever seen a programme of dances like this before? Above, centre: This was family night, and the whole family seemed to get into the swing of things. Above, right: When it's supper time, the committee ladies make a wonderful job of it. Here the president's wife, Mrs Stephenson helps Mrs Phillips with the tables. Below: This is a typical scene at any Benedict dance--everyone on the floor without any urging from an MC.

Supper time at any Benedict Club dance is almost a banquet, with everything being done as it should be, and seats for all. Here, the Fitzroy Benedicts at their monthly dance at the Merrilands School Hall take supper in a way that we were all meant to, seated. Below, left: Providing music for these dances is of a specialist variety and Jim Horne and his wife Mona know exactly what is needed. They should do--they've been playing for Benedict dances for over thirty years now, and are always in keen demand. Right: As soon as the last strains of the supper waltz have died down, out come the tables and they are quickly laden with eats. Here, Mesdames Kibby and Rogers set out to make a good job of it, with floral decorations to begin with.

INGLEWOOD DRAMA FESTIVAL

Three one-act plays were recently presented at the Inglewood drama festival, and though the quality of the acting was of a fairly high standard, the quantity of the audience left much to be desired. We found the evening most entertaining. Above: The comedy play was "Monkey Business" put on by the Norfolk CWI, and well done it was too. Left: A good part by Valda Hinz as a maid. Right: Raymond Skett and Bernie Quickfall in a scene from "Villa for sale". Below, left: Elsa Flavell as Juliette in the same play. Below, right: Jennifer Grieg and Mary Cross in a scene from "The price of coal".

Above, left: Shirley Gibson played the part of a film actress in the play "Villa for sale". Above, right: The other three players in the same production: Raymond Skett, Bernie Quickfall and Elsa Flavell. Left: Bernie was the height of fashion. Right: Kevin Biesick, Mary Cross and Jennifer Greig in "Price of Coal". Below, left: Kevin Biesick with Antionette Hutchieson. Below, right: Antionette with Mary Cross were two very good actresses.

HAWERA R.S.A. GOLDEN JUBILEE

The Hawera RSA recently held celebrations to mark its fiftieth anniversary in the town, and it is safe to say that this was a function that was enjoyed by all. Above, left: The guest speaker at the celebrations was the Dominion vice-president, NZRSA, Mr T.A. Turner. Above, right: Gold star holders of the Hawera RSA who were present at the function were, back row, Messrs T.A. Turner, M.C. Crichton, and A.S.C. Franklyn. Front row: H.J. Laurent, V.C., C. Molne and A.B. Stewart. Below: Past presidents of the Hawera RSA who attended, are from left, back row, M.C. Crichton, S.R. Veitch, F.G. Holm and C.F. Johnston. Front row: H.J. Laurent, A.E. Gorton and M.R. Jones. (ARMSTRONG'S STUDIO).

KINDERGARTEN

CHILDREN

AT PLAY

We sent our candid camera round to the Pukekura kindergarten recently, and came up with these pictures of the children at play. Top, left: Director, Miss Benton, shows the children the characters of a story book. We have always thought that a director's life among the children would be a rather hectic one, with a domestic quarrel or two to liven the day's proceedings, but we are assured that most of the little ones are models of good behaviour, and life is one long round of pleasure with the children. They certainly seemed to get on very well

S. TARANAKI SCRAMBLE

Hardy boys, these scramblers! Down at Stratford it was mud, mud, and more mud as they tore round the very tight scramble course. Above: Herman Viss, John Agnew and Reg Dixon. Below: The same three riders negotiate a bend. Bottom, left: Don Baker had trouble with a sliding back wheel. Above, right: Reg Dixon taking off. Right: Mike Hignett. Below, right: John Agnew helps his machine over the rise. These lucky chaps got about the only spot of sunshine there was over the holiday weekend.

If it looks like a
NEWS PHOTO
don't delay - ring
PHOTO NEWS
right away!

YOUR PHOTOGRAPHS FOR PHOTO NEWS

There is absolutely NO CHARGE made by us to publish your photographs in "Photo News."
If you have a wedding, 21st, engagement or any other special occasion in the offing...either send us in your photos (accompanied with details) or make arrangements for your studio to supply us with a print. Don't forget...you have a lot of friends who would like to see your "big event". So have it published in PHOTO NEWS...Free Of Charge.

Coming of Age

Above left: Pamela, daughter of Mr W. A. King and the late Mrs King, Inglewood.
Above right: Desmond, with mum and dad, Mr and Mrs D. FitzPatrick, New Plymouth.
Right: Jim, with his mother and father, Mr and Mrs T. E. Lawrence, Inglewood.
Below: Murray, son of Mr and Mrs N. Gorrie, Mokau, with his parents.
(All photographs by Henry McGee).

IF IT LOOKS LIKE A NEWS PHOTO | RING PHOTO NEWS

~~~~~
Married
 ~~~~~

Above: MOYS-MOORE. At the Fitzroy Methodist Church, Beryl, younger daughter of Mr and Mrs F.C. Moore, New Plymouth, to Ross, second son of Mr and Mrs L.A. Moys, Tokoroa. The bridesmaids were Barbara Higginson, NP, Jeanette Booth, Feilding, and Gillian Grange, NP. Best man was Leon Davidson, Hastings, and the groomsmen were Sam Mathieson, Tokoroa. Future home, Tokoroa.

Below: FLEMING-HASLETT. At St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Hawera, Joan Mary, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs C.S. Haslett, Manaia, to Richard Joseph, youngest son of Mr and Mrs R. Fleming, Rahotu. The bridesmaid was Lynette Wrigley, Hawera, and the best man was John Hickey, Opuake. Future home of the couple will be Rahotu. (DAVID PAUL STUDIOS).

Rough seas on Taranaki coast

During the past month there have been some very rough and huge seas pounding the coastline. One day in particular waves of up to twenty feet in height were crashing in, creating a sight for those who like to see such things. Frankly, rough seas intrigue us, and we could watch them for hours. Above: The wave breaking over Snapper rock shot spray fifty feet into the air, causing a sight that is not often seen around our coast. Below: The new breakwater came in for a drenching, but with little damage, and as this is about as rough as the seas get around here, it augurs well for the strength of the new breakwater. The old breakwater in the distance certainly took a terrific pounding, but withstood the onslaught.

CONFIRMATION GROUP

Above: Group of young people who recently attended their first confirmation at Okato. These children came from all towns along the coast, from Okato to Manaia. (HENRY MCGEE PHOTO).

Wedding Bells

Above: RAEDER-THURLOW. At St. John's Anglican Church, Waitara, Claire Helen, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs R.O. Thurlow, Waitara, to Oswald, second son of Mr and Mrs E. Raeder, Adelaide, South Australia. The bridesmaids were Mare Tamehana, Waitara, and Dianne Nairn, Hawera. Best man was Lance Penberth, NP, and the groomsman was Mervyn Taylor, Waitara. The flower-girl was Coral Smith, Waitara. Future home, Waitara.

TOURIST ATTRACTION

A lot of publicity has been given recently to the subject of the city and province not getting its fair share of tourists. With this we quite agree. But...if we, or even you, were a tourist, what impression of a town would you get if you saw sights like the picture above in a city, and in the main street too? This old burned-out house in Devon Street is an eyesore, and a disgrace to both the owner of the property and to the City Council for allowing such a shocking sight on the main street. We know that every town has its black spots, but please, New Plymouth, keep ours out of sight, and forbid anything like this especially on the main street.

Below: Now here's a fine building to attract the eye. It's the new Atkinson building next to the old Post Office, and a welcome addition to the skyline of the city. Now almost complete, it is due to be occupied by the end of next September.

Engaged

Above, left: BRACE-HARRISON. Elvie Lorna, the youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs K.R.Harrison, NP, to Peter Donald, elder son of Mr and Mrs D.H. Brace, NP. (VOGUE STUDIOS).

Left: SOUTHERN-HUNGER. Bernice, elder daughter of Mr and Mrs W.Hunger, New Plymouth, to Robin, elder son of Mr and Mrs N.Southern, NP. (VOGUE).

Below, left: GALLOP-BARRIBALL. Jocelyn Anne, eldest daughter of Mrs M.Barriball, Inglewood, to George Edward, elder son of Mr and Mrs C.P. Gallop, NP. (VOGUE STUDIOS).

Above: LOCK-LADBROOK. Joy Audrey, the second daughter of Mr and Mrs W.J.Ladbrook, Inglewood, to Raymond Kenneth, second son of Mr and Mrs A. D.Lock, New Plymouth. (VOGUE STUDIOS).

Below: DAVEY-GREEN. Dorothy Lesley, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs L.E.Green, Inglewood, to Michael Gerrard, twin son of Mr and Mrs J.H. Davey, New Plymouth. (VOGUE STUDIOS).

AROUND TOWN

Above: A bargain is a bargain, but patience is a virtue...Elizabeth and Richard Saywell wait for their mother, who is looking for something at the YMCA clothes sale. Brisk business was done at the sales tables, shown in the two pictures at right.

Below: Not much now remains of the old Grosvenor Hotel, which was mainly destroyed by fire a few years ago. The site is being cleared to make way for a smart new hotel on the corner of Egmont and St.Aubyn Streets.

CWI Festival at Stratford

The recent North Taranaki CWI Arts Festival at the Stratford Town Hall was an unqualified success, with exhibits from every institute in the area. Right: Scene from the Centre-Woodleigh play "No name in the street", well done and costumed. Below: Mrs Kathleen Wicksteed, the festival convenor, gets a spray from president Mrs I. Rolfe. Below, right: Mrs Ingle, Westown, receives a trophy for her production of the set play. Bottom: Line up of models displaying the garments they had made themselves.

Drama played a very important part of the recent CWI Arts Festival. Here are the trophy winners and some excerpts from the plays. Above: Westown members, Gloria Young, Jean Wheeler and Mary Tullott in the set piece, "A man born to be King". Above, right: Dorothy Wharehoka and Alison Roydhouse in the Westown play "...and Run". Right: Most hilarious play of all was the comedy "Monkey Business" by the Norfolk CWI. Below, left: Willy Riding receives a trophy for the best comedy actress. Below: Dorothy Wharehoka got a trophy for the best dramatic actress. Below, right: Mrs Orchard of the Tikorangi CWI receives the trophy for the choirs section. Below, far right: Ada Robertson, producer of the winning play.

Some of the displays at the CWI festival, which had to contain six articles and represent the title of a song. Top, from left: Winning entry of the Westown CWI; the Stratford entry was highly commended; individual entry of Mrs Condliffe, Norfolk, gained second place. Above, from left: Third place went to another of the Westown entries; Tikorangi's "Black and White Rag"; Dudley's "Click go the Shears". Below, from left; Modelling clothes made by themselves: Elsie Wheals, Iris Wheeler, Fav Walker and Joan Condliffe.

MARRIED

Above: ADLAM-JUDSON. At St.Barnabas' Anglican Church, Opunake, Raewyn Ann, elder daughter of Mr and Mrs E.C.Judson, Pihama, to Peter James, second son of Mr and Mrs P.D.Adlam, Oaonui. The bridesmaids were Annette Murfitt, NP, Janet Wadsworth, NP, and Lesley Judson, sister of the bride, Pihama. The best man was Louis Ehrler, Christchurch, and the groomsmen were Richard Gower, Hawera, and Glenn Judson, brother of the bride, Pihama. The flower-girl was Barbara Radford, Inglewood, and the page boy was Daryl Edgecumbe, Hawera. Future home, Kaponga. (DAVID PAUL STUDIOS).

Below: JORDAN-BULMAN. At St.Patrick's Catholic Church, Patea, Robyn Frances, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs J.Bulman, Kakaramea, to John Leslie, youngest son of Mr and Mrs R.G.Jordan, Patea. The bridesmaids were Heather Jordan, sister of the groom, Patea, and Evelyn Bulman, sister of the bride, Patea. Best man was Alan Cooper, NP, and the groomsmen were Gary Wiltshire, NP. Future home, Patea. (DAVID PAUL STUDIOS).

"Nana Mac's" 90th Birthday

Over two hundred people from Opunake and many other parts of NZ turned up recently for the 90th birthday of one of Opunake's best known identities, Mrs Agnes Mackenzie, more affectionately known as Nana Mac. This was a great tribute substantiating her popularity in the district. Above, left: Nana Mac cuts her celebration cake. Above: Nana with her three daughters, Mesdames Rhys Griffiths, Howick, Harvey Johnson, Hawera, and R. Hughson, Opunake. With her is one of her grand-daughters, who celebrated her birthday on the same day. Below: Grandchildren of Nana sang a couple of hymns. Bottom: This was the crowd to pay tribute to Nana Mac.

Married

Above: CLEAVER-MINTON. At St. Mary's Anglican Church, Hawera, Kay, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs J. M. Minton, Hawera, to Graeme, eldest son of Mr and Mrs K. O. Cleaver, Putaruru. The bridesmaid was Carole Lambert, Hawera, and the best man was Angus McLeod, Ohakea. The page boy was Peter Lambert, New Plymouth. Future home, Feilding. (DAVID PAUL STUDIOS).

Below: LUOND-DAVY. At St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Kaponga, Lynette Elsie, daughter of Dawson S. Davy, Manaia, to Trevor John, son of Don Luond, Manaia. Bridesmaids were Jeanette Shirtcliffe, Manaia, Gloria and Isabel Davy, sisters of the bride, Manaia. The best man was Peter Furness, Hawera. Groomsmen were Joe Fohn, NP, and John Luond, brother of the groom, Manaia. Future home, Manaia.

