Final session of three separate night's competition for junior hairdressers for the "Bronwyn Cup" was recently held at the Stratford Old Folk's Hall. Competition had been keen throughout the heats and excitement ran high when the winner was announced. This competition was only open to juniors with less than 3 years' experience, but despite this, the standard of work was very high, causing quite a worry for the three judges. Above: Winner of the overall points and Bronwyn Cup was Joanne Corbett, NP, shown receiving the cup from Taranaki Association president, Mr Cook. Above, left: Joanne and her model, Mrs Gale. All the models were Stratford women. Below, left: Second place was won by Sharon Hosie, Hawera. The model was Mrs Little. Below, centre: Mrs J. Gardner was the model for third placegetter, Gail Robinson, Hawera. Below, right: Fourth was Raewyn Arundel, NP, and model Mrs Cameron.

Manawatu Downed

First rep Rugby League game of the season showed Taranaki to have one of its best teams ever. Their superior fitness and rugged tackling were features of a game that reached a high standard of league football. The home team's 38-14 win was a reflection of their superiority over a strong league province, Manawatu. Above: Jack Knuckey gets pulled down as Ian Watson comes in to support. Below: Hec Cooper executes a copybook tackle with Lou Rata waiting for the loose ball. Above, right: Bunny Daymond is tackled from both sides. Right: George McLeod runs into trouble with Fred White in support. Below, right: Butch Phillips goes in to stop this Manawatu rush.

Social and presentation of trophies won during the past season by Speedway Club members was held at the Star Gym where a large crowd enjoyed a well organised evening. Some of the many trophy winners are shown here. Above: President's wife, Marj Rutherford, hangs a trophy round the neck of David Allerton. Below: Marj and vice-president's wife, Mrs L. BEST N.Z. RESTAURANT. Above: Proud proprietor of La Scala, Frank Gibbons, with the plaque of the NZ Restaurant Association he won as the best Restaurant in NZ. A high honour indeed, and one we feel justly deserved.

91-YEAR-OLD. Left: Mrs May Goodhall, Hobson St, NP, has recently reached her 91st birthday. And what a wonderful old lady she is! She reads and writes without spectacles, and proudly claims that she does everything for herself, being dependent on no one. The party celebrating her birthday was held in the home of the ex-Mayor, Mr and Mrs A.G. Honnor.

UNUSUAL VIEW

1000 BOWLERS CONTEST NORTH ISLAND CHAMPS

Over 1000 bowlers, many of them visitors from out of town, recently came to the city to contest the North Island championships. The tourney was a complete success, particularly from the organisation point of view, with not a hitch during the weekend of the Queen's Birthday on which it was run. Many glowing tributes were paid to the efficiency of the organisation by most of the visiting bowlers. Above, left: Ted Maha, Waitara, and his opponent, Mrs P. Jones, at a head. Above, centre: Madge Penwarden, Paritutu, sends one down the mat. Above, right: Les Birkby watches a bowl while skip Doug Colburn seems undismayed. Below: View of the post section players in the fours at the YMCA Stadium where 256 players were accommodated at the same time.

Above: It certainly was a cold weekend for the North Island bowling champs, but we thought Ted Maha, Waitara, was taking things a bit far...you're not bald yet are you Ted? Above, right: Downcast-looking trio in the post section play of the fours were Ted Strong and N. Nicholas, Waitara, and Laurie Mowat. Below, left: Leo Penwarden watched by his team mates, wife Madge and Kit Hopewell. Below, right: The president of the Association which ran the tourney, Neil Blackhall, had a hectic weekend keeping everything running smoothly. Bottom, left: Third equal in the tourney were these two teams, that on the left from Auckland and on the right from the Waikato. The Mayor of NP, Mr D. Y. Sutherland, presented the prizes.

PAIRS WINNERS

The final of the pairs section of the recent North Island Bowling tourney was watched by over 500 people in the YMCA Stadium, and proved to be a great contest, with heads changing with nearly every bowl. There was quite a bit of interest in this final as it contained a Taranaki team. Another Taranaki pair gained third place. Above: Russell Moore, of the Pukengahu Club, bowls watched by his opponent R.Moses, of Fencourt, Cambridge. Below: Moore's lead, "Darkie" Death, tries to head one in the right direction, watched by J.Allison. RETIRED

These six men recently announced their retirement from Johnson Motors' staff when the firm celebrated its 50th jubilee. From left, "Robbie" Robertson (35 years service), Jack Stevenson (32), Vic Rydon (35), Dudley Johnson (31), Jack Joyce (29) and Perc Squire (34).

STOCK CAR MEETING

An additional meeting of stock cars was recently held at the Stratford Showgrounds on Queen's Birthday weekend, and it attracted quite a sizable crowd, despite the very cold wind. Feature of the programme were teams races, and thrillers they turned out to be, with Taranaki showing the way to the winning post. Above: Some cars take a terrible pounding. This chap got rolled by the fence, righted himself and continued on in the race. Below: The makings of a big pile-up coming up here. Bottom, left: This picture was taken a split second after that above it, and the crash came almost straight after...when we had run out of film! Bottom, right: Which way is this chap going? Must have had a broken track rod, as one front wheel points south and the other north!

Top: How's this for a crash? No. 91 has crashed into the rear of a pile of cars, with such force that its back wheels came off the ground. Above: Three of the smartest cars, and though they may not look like it, they can motor too! Right: The production car races weren't without their spin-outs either--wonder they didn't roll. Below: It's No.2 back in the race again, and just about to spin-out its opposition, which is precisely what it did.

Oaonui Boxing Tourney

Below: W.Ellerby, Patea, left, delivers one to the solar, with a very vicious right waiting to be thrown to his opponent, G.Kenny, Fitzroy. Ellerby won on points. Bottom, left: C. Tong, Opunake, right, unwinds his right when he beat T. Payne, Manaia. Centre, right: A.Coleman, Eltham, left, and G.Crow, Waitara, both shoot out their lefts. Crow won. Bottom, right: Best boxing of the evening was by P.Whera, Patea, left, and D.Drury, Oakura. Whera won on points.

The Opunake Boxing Club held its first tourney of the season at the Oaonui Hall. There was a fairly large crowd of spectators which witnessed some very interesting bouts. In our opinion, top entertainment at the tourney was the bout between two of the smallest boxers we have ever seen in a ring, and talk about pluck...they fought like a couple of tigers! Above, left: Pat Ngatai wore a dressing gown about ten sizes too big when he stepped into the ring. Above, centre: Pat and his opponent, P.Murphy, Opunake, get stuck in to the amusement of the crowd. Above, right: Both down, but not for the count. Right: Murphy got a blood nose, but still kept fighting. Well done, kids! Below: B.Gilchrist, Patea, right, was a winner on points over R.Cloke, Oakura. Bottom, right: R. Morris, Opunake, gets one on the side of the ear from B.Larsen, Fitzroy, who won the bout.

STRATFORD OPEN 25-MILER

Over 200 cyclists from many parts of the country took part in the Queen's Birthday weekend race at Stratford. The races were held in brilliant sunshine, despite a distinct chill in the air. Above: K.Mason, Stratford, on the left, fights out the finish with W.Burnand, also of Stratford in an exciting finish. Mason won by a wheel. Below: Following this sprint to the line, one of the riders crashed badly. Our picture shows officials rushing to his assistance. Once again, the St.John men were on hand, as always, to tend this rather badly injured rider. Bottom: Another finishing bunch races for the line, with J.Skogstad, Palmerston North, second from right, taking fastest time.

LARGE ENTRY AT Q.B. CYCLING

The New Plymouth Cycling Club's open 25 attracted a very large field for its Queen's Birthday races, held from Spotswood. Unfortunately, the starts and finishes are rather marred by the amount of traffic that passes the point, many motorists not being a bit considerate. Top: The 11-minute bunch prepares to get under way. They included riders from many districts. Above, left: The break bunch included E.Cottam and M.Baker, NP. Above, right: Scratch riders, from left: M.Benton, W.Baron and D.Brown, all of New Plymouth. Below, left: 5½ minute group included, on the right, R. Gordon-Staples, Papatoetoe, formerly New Plymouth. Below, right: Next away was this small group, including NP's P.Bishop, M.Gray and R.Clarke.

Top, right: Second man home, and leading a large bunch was K.Mildenhall, Port Nicholson. Above: B.Simmonds, Wanganui, heads another large bunch of riders to cross the finishing line. Below: Off 9 minutes and containing C.Siddell, NP, and five Stratford riders.

MARRIED

Above: LARKING-WILSON. At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, NP, Judith Ann, elder daughter of Mr and Mrs R. Wilson, NP, to Spencer Graham, only son of Mr and Mrs T. Larking, Okato. The bridesmaids were Lola Rosser, NP, Susan Wilson, Waitara, and Helen Wilson, sister of the bride, NP. Best man was Quentin Milne, NP, and the groomsmen were Barry Clarke, Wanganui, and John Kinnell, NP. The flower-girl was Karen Ngatai, Waitara. Future home, Okato.

$200 WINNER
