THE CHIEF LIVES ON

In the mid 1850s this Chief was a well known leader in the Hawke's Bay district. Though he is, of course, long departed his image lives on in this painting by the late Joseph Annabell. The painting has deteriorated and run into lumps in some places, as can be seen in this copy of the original.

OUR COVER

Miss June Photo News is Sally Blackman. Sally looks absolutely stunning in this chamois trouser suit from Champions and, though the pistol may have a dangerous sheen to it, we can't find any dangerous look in Sally's eyes.

BACK COVER. One of the many picturesque scenes in Pukekura Park. Here, the bright red of the footbridge contrasts delightfully with the many shades of greenery.

WANGANUI THRASHES TARANAKI AT RUGBY

In the first representative rugby match of the season, the Wanganui team literally thrashed Taranaki. There really were no excuses for the local side, even if it was the first match of the season, and we hope that over the next few weeks the Taranaki side will gain form and stage something of a comeback.

FARM-A-RAMA

The N.Z.B.C., in association with local Young Farmers' Clubs throughout Taranaki, organised a massive demonstration of new farm equipment and methods. Called 'Farm-A-Rama,' the event was staged one recent weekend at Beach Road, Omata,

RESULTS OF CAMERA COMPETITION

We had literally hundreds and hundreds of entries in our camera competition and, in fact, there were so many entries that our Editor spent no less than six solid hours reading through them all. The judging was extremely difficult.

Eventually it was a choice between four entries, all of which were extremely good. In the end the choice was made because of simplicity and honesty in the winning entry, which simply stated "I want to win the camera for Mum and Dad because they borrow mine."

We are happy to announce Wendy Dew of Marama Crescent, New Plymouth, as the winner and look forward to her coming in to "Photo News" to claim her prize.

As most of you are aware, the Bank of New South Wales-Photo News Baby Photo Contest has now closed. We have been so swamped with entries that we are almost embarrassed. Because of the large number of entries that we have to make prints of, attach to a board and deliver to the judges, it has become necessary to delay the judging of the contest.

This now means that the contest results will be announced in the next issue of "Photo News," due out on July 11.

Two members of the "Photo News" staff examine some of the entries that have been printed and counted, ready for judging. There are many more yet to be completed

N.Z. PONY CLUB CHAMPIONSHIPS

The New Zealand Pony Club championships were held this year at New Plymouth over a three-day period. There were three sections — dressage, cross-country and show jumping.

BASKETBALL RECORD SHATTERED

Francis Douglas College boys were sponsored in an attempt on the indoor basketball record in the May holidays. The boys not only broke the record by two hours, but they raised over $1000, plus a tractor. The money will be sent to assist the De La Salle School in New Guinea.

WAITARA BEER FESTIVAL

This year's Waitara Beer Festival, while a thoroughly enjoyable affair, was not as well attended as last year's festival. However, those who did attend set out to have a good time, and that is precisely what they did.

MISS N.Z. SHOW

The Miss New Zealand Show visited Taranaki recently with a line-up of the latest batch of lovelies from all over the country, one of who will represent the nation as the new Miss New Zealand. The show also included a spattering of good entertainers.

Eddie Lowe gave his usual strong performance

Gary Buck, from Canada, didn't come across as well as he might have

ABOVE and ABOVE RIGHT—As far as we were concerned, the undoubted 'star' of the show was guitarist Gray Bartlett. His performance was smooth and very professional and he proved to the audience the reasons why he has been doing so well overseas.

RIGHT—Our own Miss Taranaki received a big warm round of applause from the audience. In the background cheerleader and compere Jim McNaught holds the floor.

Marja Dallas proved to be a popular performer with the audience. She belted out some hard hitting songs and also crooned a few, soft and low

Above: DAVY—COLDRICK. At St Philomena's Church, New Plymouth, Lorraine Patricia, daughter of Mr and Mrs F. T. Coldrick of New Plymouth, to Louis Neil, son of Mrs A. E. Davy, also of New Plymouth, and the late Mr F. R. Davy. The attendants were Karen Coldrick, Aileen Eliason and Denise MacDonald, all of New Plymouth, Kay Davy of Wanganui, and Patrick Coldrick and Allan Williams, both of New Plymouth. The couple will make their home in New Plymouth. (Fitzroy Studios).

Below: MARSHALL—CLEAVER. At St John's Church, Waitara, Sharlaine Dorothy, second daughter of Mr and Mrs C. C. Cleaver of Onaero, to Kevin Thomas, twin son of Mr and Mrs T. I. Marshall of Aria. The attendants were Maxine Marshall and Phillip Marshall, both of Aria. The couple will make their home at Onaero. (Fitzroy Studios).

HOCKEY TOURNAMENT

An inter-School hockey tournament was held at Stratford during the May holidays, which climaxed with a North Island versus South Island match in which South won 2 goals to 1.

The tournament was played by primary school girls from throughout New Zealand and lasted a week.

CONCERT AT RAHOTU

The Y.F.C. and C.G.C. Clubs combined to stage a hilarious concert for two nights at Rahoitu recently. To say that the show was a success would be an understatement, for the crowd was in laughter from beginning to end and several went back again on the second night's performance for another dose of the 'fun pill.'
