THE STORY OF WOOL

During children's week at the library a variety of activities were staged, including the story of wool, as illustrated on this page. It was indeed a rather strange sight to enter the library, usually a place of silence, to be greeted by the whirr of a shearing machine and the murmur of a hundred or so childish voices.

WHO SAYS BANANAS?

A dairy in Inglewood has for some time displayed the above sign for bananas spelt 'BANANANAS.' The previous owner of the dairy, Ray Peters, purposely mis-spelt the word just to see how many people noticed. Only a few commented on the spelling. The dairy was recently sold but the new owner has decided to let the sign remain.

JOHNNY FARNHAM MARRIES

Australia's Johnny Farnham, who is well remembered in New Zealand for his hit song "Sadie, the Cleaning Lady" and for his several trips here for concerts and stage shows, has married.

The new bride is Jillian (Farnham of course) and the couple were married late in April. Their honeymoon was spent on the holiday resort, Brampton Island.

Although there is at this stage no confirmation, there is some talk that Johnny Farnham will leave for London later this year to appear in a West End musical stage production.

TO TOUR

More names have been announced for Australian tours this year. At this point nothing definite for New Zealand.

These artists are Diana Ross, in June, The Jackson Five, in June (as announced by Now Sound a while back), Rod Stewart and The Faces, also in June, and the Hollies are at present on an Australian tour. (See next article).

Also this month is Don McLean (who will be appearing in Auckland). Then, last weekend, the British group Flash (which includes two ex-members of 'Yes' in the present line-up) and Canadian group Cherri performed in concert only, before flying out again. This was at Melbourne.

RECORD COMPANY MOVES INTO TOUR PROMOTION

The giant recording organisation, E.M.I., has moved into the promotion of tours in Australia.

The company's first venture is underway at the present time with a national tour headlined by the Hollies. Local artist Ross Ryan is support act.

E.M.I. has stated that it will tour other overseas artists in Australia and will also promote Australian tours by Australian artists, as well as attempting to tour Australian acts overseas.

With this move in Australia, one cannot help but wonder if the move will also spread to New Zealand. E.M.I. is an extremely large international organisation and, if its branches in the various countries of the world were to set up a separate division for the promotion of tours, then unlimited possibilities could be opened up for the artists who record for the company. E.M.I. has stated that it will also work artists not necessarily tied to their labels, so this in turn opens up a great new field.

Such a move by E.M.I. in New Zealand could only benefit the industry and all performers in general and I personally would like to see it happen.

TOURING NEW ZEALAND

Kamahl is a name that New Zealanders are now hearing for the first time. He is at present on a tour of this country and is visiting us from Australia. But Kamahl is no native Australian. He was born in Malaya.

However, his success as an entertainer is an all-Australian success story and he has risen through pure hard work (helped along with the natural warm magic and resonance of his beautiful voice) to become one of the most acclaimed and highest paid entertainers in that country. He is also becoming well known in England, where his records and live appearances have been very well received.

PRObe

with BRYCE McPHERSON

There is, among the legends of New Zealand's colourful past, a story that one of the first adventurers from the Old World to come upon New Zealand looked through his spy glass and solemnly told his crew, "This place has it all."

His verdict was very close to the truth — New Zealand does have much to offer. Because of its beautiful scenery, its pleasant people, its many other interesting aspects, the country reaches the finals for the title of "Paradise on Earth."

Taranaki, as a paradise within a paradise, has a leading role to play in the exploitation of the abundance of attractions with which nature has endowed it.

A great way to get rid of fleas is to take a bath in sand, then rub down with alcohol. The fleas get drunk and kill each other throwing rocks.

I know I'm always on about driving offences, but this one takes the prize. I was stationary, indicator denoting a right turn, as I waited for oncoming traffic to allow access to a city parking area. Oldish vehicle approaching from behind me paused momentarily, then pulled out and overtook on my right, into the oncoming traffic. It made it, but . . . !

As he felt his way around the lamp-post he said, "Sno use, I'm walled in."

Teacher, patiently: "If one and one makes two and two and two makes four, how much does four and four make?" Hill-billy pupil: "That ain't fair, teacher, you answer the two easy questions and leave the hard one for me."

I lent a young lady my golf umbrella as she watched a girlfriend playing in a sporting fixture on a damp Saturday afternoon. The rain stopped and the spectator lowered the umbrella, slipping a hand down inside the folds of the deflated implement. There was a squeal of anguish, when the rain resumed, as she re-deployed the umbrella. A piece of wire had pierced a finger and there she was, affixed. A quick visit to a doctor, umbrella attached to finger, was required to free the young lady who in future, she told me, rather get wet than spiked.

Bachelors know more about women than married men. If they didn't they'd be married too.

Each visitor will enhance our image if he goes home feeling he has received good value for money plus the small items of friendly personal service which will make him want to come again.

TENNIS TEAM DEPARTS

Thirty-four young tennis players left recently for Adelaide, Australia, to play several different tennis teams there. Their stay in Adelaide was for a two-week period and the players had been picked from clubs all over Taranaki.

BOXING AT WAITARA

The Waitara Boxing Club recently organised an evening of bouts, at the Memorial Hall, which included both amateur and professional fights. In the match at LEFT is the amateur fight between Chaple and O'Donnell. The two pictures BELOW are also of the same match.

In this match J. Rattenbury (Fitzroy) beat B. O'Hanlon (Waitara)

G. Anstis (Fitzroy) beat A. Turner (Waitara) on points

This preliminary professional match was between two Aucklanders, B. Ascama and B. Fuerene

Ascama dropped Fuerene three times in this welterweight match

Scheduled for six rounds, the match was stopped in the fifth and the decision went to Ascama
