PRINTERS ERROR

When our last set of covers were printed, our printer made an unfortunate error.

Instead of Taranaki, New Plymouth was inadvertently printed, with the result that the magazine was given a change of name.

We apologise to the public for this error and assure you that we are definitely still TARANAKI PHOTO NEWS.

The error will be corrected with the next issue of Photo News.

C. & W. CONCERT

The Country and Western Music Club staged an excellent two hour show recently at the Memorial Hall in Waitara. It was a very well produced show with non stop action and a wide variety and style of songs which belied the term country and western. We hope to see more shows staged by the club.

SOCCER

MOTUROA UNITED v UPPER HUTT

In an interesting game between Upper Hutt and Moturoa United a short time ago, the local side went down 4-2, after a half time score of 2 all. The first half saw excellent play by both sides but with two changes in the local side, the second half degenerated into a rather disjointed game.

TWITTY CHIEF

Conway Twitty has been appointed 'Honorary Chief' of Choctaw Indian Tribe in America. The honour is a great one having only been bestowed on one other white man. In 1955 Roy Rogers, who has adopted two Choctaw Indian children was given an honorary chieftans title. However Rogers did not receive the title 'Honorary Chief of the Choctaw Tribe' as has Twitty.

GUEST BUSY

Rob Guest, who recently sang at the Winter Show has a busy schedule ahead of him. He is currently promoting his new single, which is called 'I Can't Make You Love Me', and has been scheduled to make several TV appearances, including 'Pop Co' and a guest appearance on the NZBC religious song quest. He is also booked to make a tour of colleges.

HOT SELLER

Neil Diamonds double set 'Hot August Night' has racked up sales in Australia of over one million dollars. This figure is based on the wholesale price, excluding sales tax.

SHORT SNORTS

Osibisa a hit with all who saw them. Their new album is something of a return to their early style, back to that raw earthy sound yet with a more together and sophisticated musical backing Australian Brian Cadd (The Coke TV advert man) was in New Zealand recently promoting a film he'd made. Guested on 'Pop Co' while he was here George Baker has a slice of action touring New Zealand this month Stuart McPherson (handing the action in ten cities Johnny Dankworth (Cleo Laines husband) received a C.B.E. from the Queen Mother

TRIPLE TRIUMPH

John Denver has achieved a triple triumph in America. His album 'John Denvers Greatest Hits' reached No 1 spot on all three of the major American charts. At the same time his single 'Sunshine On My Shoulder' took top honours in the charts for 'hot singles'. Already one of the hottest recording artists in America, Denvers' recent American TV Special scored heavily in the ratings and this boosted his record sales even further.

NEW ALBUMS

PAUL SIMON..... Paul Simon In Concert - Live Rhythmin....CBS... 474-176

Paul Simons' album releases keep on getting better with each release. This 'live' album is definitely his best since the duo of Simon and Garfunkel split. Guesting on the album are the Jessy Dixon Singers and a great South American group called Urubamba. Both parties add a lot to the album and help to give a new feel to material always associated with the Simon and Garfunkel duo, not with Simon as a solo artist. Material on the album includes such as Me and Julio, Homeward Bound, El Condor Pasa, Bridge Over Troubled Waters, Loves Me Like a Rock, Mother and Child Reunion and the Sound of Silence.

JIM CROCE..... I Got a Name....Philips....6360-720:

It is ironic that Croce should find world wide fame after he had died. However this is often the way with great artists and great, Croce surely is. His talent was in his voice and his pen, and thank-fully it is something the world at large is still able to enjoy. From the title track of this album to his hit 'I'll Have to Say I Love You In a Song', evidence of the mans talent is here on this release. Of course there are other tracks that are worthy of attention but for the many who adore the work of Jim Croce, let me simply say that you will discover a great many things about the man simply by listening to the tracks on this album that he has written.

THE NEW SEEKERS..... Together....Polydor....2393-264

This will probably be the last release by the New Seekers as the group has disbanded since the making of this album. It is always rather sad when an act of this calibre quits (in this case it was caused by hassles between group and management over money) for the public is always the worse off by the acts passing.

This last album by the New Seekers is an ideal way in which to remember the group. They touch on material of many types and artists. From their 'With a Little Help From My Friends', to 'Crying Time, Brother Loves' Travelling Show, their own 'You Won't Find Another Fool Like Me, Melting Pot, Fire and Rain, My Sweet Lord, Day by Day, to Dedicated to the One I Love. Perhaps this collection of songs, more than any they have previously released, best portrays the versatility and tremendous power that was the New Seekers.
