

Welcome!

Age, youth, a warming welcome, and the bewilderment of childhood...they're all conveyed in this picture by Wal Britton, of Auckland. He took it when three Tokelauan families and 22 single women arrived at Mangere recently under the resettlement scheme administered by the Island Territories and Maori Affairs Departments. Miss Tupou Simeti (left), one of the new arrivals, receives the traditional welcome from Mrs Tura Hira, and it's all a source of wonder to Little Kataline Timena.

Touring This Year

Among bookings for New Zealand tours this year are (above) the internationally famous Vienna Boys' Choir, which will return in June and (left) Kenneth McKellar, the popular Scottish singer, who will be visiting both the metropolitan and provincial centres, beginning in April.

Above: Lovely ELKE SOMMER, bikini-clad for her role as the beautiful but evil Eckman, relaxes on board a chartered yacht during a break in filming location scenes at Lerici, Italy, for the film "Deadlier Than The Male".

Right: ELSA MARTINELLI in the sensational Italian-designed outfit she wears in "Maroc 7", an adventure thriller which was shot almost entirely on location in Morocco.

Right: At her home in France, DANY ROBIN keeps five real live crocodiles as pets. While filming "Don't Lose Your Head" at Pinewood in Britain, the property department made her feel at home by providing a mock "croc" for her to nurse between scenes. "Don't Lose Your Head" is a comedy of the French Revolution.

MOTORING WITH ROBBIE

KEEP your trouble light trouble-free by coiling it loosely over a tin can nailed to the wall. The can will also hold a spare bulb. Form a loop near the end of the wire and hang it over a hook to keep from accidentally pulling the plug.

COURTESY IS LIKE AN AIR CUSHION: THERE'S NOTHING IN IT, BUT IT CERTAINLY EASES THE JOLTS.

SPRING type hose clamps on lower radiator connections are difficult to hold open when connecting. However, if you squeeze the clamp open and force a short length of half inch copper tubing over the ends as shown here it will hold the clamp open.

TO CHECK the state of charge of your battery, use a hydrometer which will show you the specific gravity of the electrolyte in the cells. When the battery is fully charged the reading will be 1250. If it's flat, the reading will be about 1100.

IMPROVISE a coat hanger bracket by closing a rear window on a rubber fruit jar ring. The ring will support several garments and will leave no marks or scratches on the window. A ring cut from an inner tube will serve just as well.

A PAIR of rounded wooden blocks anchored to a sloping driveway will keep a car from rolling away ... the blocks should be gently rounded so that they are easy to run over yet at the same time just steep enough to hold the car when it is parked.

YOU SHOULD lubricate the speedometer cable every 10,000 miles. Withdraw the inner shaft and apply the grease sparingly. Feed the shaft back into its casing. Then withdraw about eight inches and wipe off the surplus grease otherwise it will work its way into the speedometer head.

DEAD HEAT AFTER 10 MILES

TARANAKI CHAMPION FOUR

FLANNAGAN CUP SWIM

Glorious weather, a warm smooth sea, and not a very large crowd for the Flannagan cup. The entries were a bit down on previous years—perhaps that was the reason why there weren't quite so many watchers. Despite this, the race was swum at a fast pace. The winner, W. Clow, Fitzroy, is shown, right, being congratulated by starter Ray Lovatt on his win from the back mark. Below: Second home, and first woman, was Mary Lyle. Below, right: Fourth home was another woman, Miss M. Green.

Above: Where have all the people gone? These were the few who were at the Port recently to watch the start of the Flannagan Cup swim. It was just a few years back that there were ten times more in attendance. Below, left: Leaving 25 minutes after the front marker, winner of the race, W. Clow, goes down to the water. Bottom, left: Misses H. Fraser and C. Grace get their orders from the starter, Ray Lovatt. Below, right: Back markers sit in the sun and wait for the starter's call. Bottom, right: First women away enter the warm, calm water.

Wedding Bells

Left: GILL-BELL. At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, NP, Lyn, grand-daughter of Mrs C. L. Bell, NP, to Errol, youngest son of Mr L. T. S. Gill, NP. The bridesmaids were Lynette Fowler, Hawera, and Carol Dodunski, Egmont Village. Best man was Murray Roberts, NP, and the groomsmen were Gordon Harvey, NP. Future home, NP. (VOGUE).

Right: JOHNSON-KINSELLA. At St. Mary's Church, NP, Maureen, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs A. T. Kinsella, Wellington, to Peter, second son of Mrs M. E. Johnson, Wellington, and the late Mr Johnson. The bridesmaids were Janice Marden, Wellington, Jennifer Shirley, Matamata, Christine Kinsella, sister of the bride, and Jillian Ambler, both of Wellington. The best man was William Johnson, brother of the groom, Australia, and the groomsmen were Tony Collinson-Smith, Otorohanga. Future home, Wellington. (VOGUE).

Left: ELLERY-WEY. At St. Luke's, Bell Block, Carolyn, twin daughter of Mr and Mrs R. G. Wey, Bell Block, to Graham, elder son of Mrs D. Ellery, NP. Matron of honour was Christine Jury, twin sister of the bride, NP, and Jennifer Wey, sister of the bride, Bell Block. Best man was Ian Ellery, brother of the groom, NP, and the groomsmen were Ray Jury, NP. (VOGUE STUDIOS).

BOY'S BRIGADE QUEEN'S BADGE WINNERS

It was a great night for the 3rd NP Company of Boys' Brigade at St. Andrew's Hall, when four of their number were presented with the high honour of a Queen's Badge. In the past nine years, the company has had three Queen's Badges, but last year four came their way, and this augurs well for the future of the company: Numerically, they are the strongest company in the province, with a roll of over fifty boys. Above: Recipients of the coveted awards were, from left, Phillip Collins, Peter Burton, Keith Bromley and Graeme Treeby. Right: The Mayor, Mr A. G. Honnibr, inspects the new recruits with the Company captain, K. Corkhill. Bottom: On inspection, the boys were as smart and bright as buttons.

TEST — NEW ZEALAND VERSUS AUSTRALIA

History was recently made, when New Plymouth was chosen for a test match against Australia. This is the first time that a full test has been held outside of the four main centres. And now having seen the beauty of the ground, plus the facilities, plus the perfect wicket, perhaps the NZ Cricket Association will put another test at Pukekura Park. Very high tribute was paid by the visiting players...and they should know, having played cricket in many parts of the world. The fact that many thousands travelled to New Plymouth for this important game proves beyond doubt that we too, as well as the main centres can attract large crowds to any sporting fixture that we get. Above, left: B.Sinclair, caught Booth, bowled by Connolly. Above, right: The TV Cameras were in operation too. Below: What better setting anywhere in the world than this?

One of the finest examples of brighter cricket was provided by Canterbury's Bruce Taylor in his magnificent knock of 92, before being run out over a slight misunderstanding by his partner at the wicket, B.W. Yuille. It was a pity that Bruce couldn't have made the century, because he was all set for it when this unfortunate occurrence took place. His partnership with Yuille produced 111 runs, 92 to Taylor and 19 to Yuille, who we thought batted a bit too doggedly. Above: Here Taylor misses one, and looked a bit unorthodox, but his wicket remained intact. Right: In contrast, Yuille played a dour and defensive role at the wicket, which didn't please the crowd too much. Below: Once more, Taylor drives and four runs result, as wicketkeeper Jarman seems to expect the ball past the stumps.

Saturday, the second day of the test was a brilliantly fine day, and hot too, and about 9000 people attended. At left are some of that crowd soaking up the sun and fine cricket. Below: Bruce Taylor looks about to lose his wicket, but in fact, the ball is being stroked through the slips. Centre, left: Taylor again, this time driving hard through the covers. Bottom, left: Bruce Taylor drops to his knees after being struck by a vicious bouncer off Connelly. Below, right: Philippott winded himself when he dived for a ball in the field. He later left the field.

MAMMOTH CATERING JOB

Well, mammoth is hardly the word for it, but the people responsible for the catering for the public at the airport on the day of the pageant made a first-class job of it, though they had people at least six deep round their counter for most of the time. We photographed them on the previous evening when they were preparing for the rush, and their menu included 16,000 sandwiches, 12,000 pies and 10,000 bread rolls. All we can say is that they did a marvellous job in feeding the hungry from the crowd of 30,000, which attended the pageant. Above: Brains behind the scene belonged to Ivy Nuku, Ana Katene and Monica Kamo, shown at the counter of their very modern and clean cafeteria. Right: On the night before and on the day of the pageant these were the back room boys who worked like trojans. Below: Group fills sandwiches, 16,000 of them. Below, right: Jellies and trifles for the official party were also prepared here.

We've seen a few school swimming baths in our time, but the new one at the Oaonui school just about beats the lot. It is large enough, safe, and very attractively set in the particularly well-kept school grounds, and is the result of community effort which would be hard to head off. The official opening was a gala day for the school, which included a programme by the children. Above: Reading a newspaper while swimming was a novel race. Above, right: First in the pool was this little frog, helped into the water by Mrs H.Hingston. Below: Chairman of the Taranaki Education Board, Mr M. G. B. Harvey, addresses the large gathering. Bottom: Oaonui's own particular kind of boat race.

OAOUI SCHOOL BATHS OPENED

Above: The children of the Oaonui school provided fun for the spectators at the opening of their new baths. Here they indulge in a fancy-dress race. But when the parents had their turn, there was much hilarity, as they competed in a lilo race. Below: Here are the parents. We've never seen so much duck-shuvving in all our lives--in fact most of the race took place UNDER the water. Bottom: The start was the only part of the race they couldn't cheat at!

FASHION SHOW WITH A DIFFERENCE

Cooperation between the NAC and the Farmers' Co-op provided one of the best and most novel fashion shows yet seen in New Plymouth. The Memorial Hall was packed to the doors, admission being by invitation only, with over five hundred people present. Above: Stage set for this show looked very impressive from the audience angle, with the models on stage. Below, left: Now fancy seeing a scene like that at our airport! Below, right: The models came on to the stage from the cabin of a cardboard Friendship. And good it looked too.

EX-MCGRUERS' STAFF REUNION

The New Plymouth Golf Club was the venue for a reunion of the old members of the staff of McGruers, NP. It was a very enjoyable evening, with plenty of talk over old times, and plenty of laughter to go with it. Above: These are some of the staff members of a few years ago. From left: Ellen White, Bert Withers, Molly Hooker, Lionel Erb, Peggy Whitcombe, Janet Sutcliffe, Ida Fox, Mavis Wheeler and the then manager, Ken Waite. Below, left: Ken Waite, on the left, manager from 1944-1961 and Jock Gilbert, manager from 1961 until McGruer's sold out to Smith and Brown. Below, right: Two ex-members, Elsie Courtney and Tom MacArthur, provided vocal enjoyment.

CHANGING FORTUNES IN PAIRS FINAL

The final of the recent Taranaki Women's Bowling Association open pairs tournament was a game of changing fortunes. When we arrived about the fourteenth end, it looked all over bar the shouting for Mrs Randell and her lead, but fate took a hand, and they failed to score for the next four heads and by that time Mesdames Bates and Thomson, the eventual winners, of Paritutu, had overhauled them. It tensed a bit as Mrs Randell needed a three on the last end to tie the game. Above, left: Mrs Vi Read, the TWBA president, presents the Open Cup to Mrs Bates, with centre secretary, Mrs N. Mackay, in the background. Above, right: Consolations for Mrs R. Randell, Waiwaka. Below, left: Winners, "Wickie" Thomson and Margaret Bates, Paritutu, and below, right: Runners up, Vi Moorhead and Rita Randell, Waiwaka.

SENIOR CITIZENS

Here are a couple of people who are using up the latter end of life to a very useful purpose. On the left is Mrs Ada Gush, aged 78, and still active as secretary of the NP Old Folks' Association. Mrs Gush was born in London, and has been in NZ for 73 years. Her father, Mr R.Cogar, was the first secretary of the NPOFA, and she took over this important office just 21 years after. On the right is Ernest Davis, president of the OFA for over 15 years. Ernest is 83 years old, and still as active as anyone twenty years younger. Before retiring, he had been farming in Taranaki for over 62 years. So between them, these two people are rendering a very useful service to the community of old people in the district, and this is to their credit.

NOT SO MANY FISH ROUND OUR COAST

The North Taranaki Surfcasting and Angling Club recently held an open fishing competition, with the weigh-in on a Sunday night. We went along expecting to find piles of huge fish but were disappointed to find that only three snapper were entered for the competition. It shows that there can't be that many fish close in shore...or is it the old cry that the Japanese have taken them all from our coast? Right: Winner of the heaviest fish caught, a 14½ lb. snapper was Dennis Skelton, Waitara, and was caught at Waitara. Left: Curly Burton, NP., caught the biggest bag, two snapper totalling 13½lbs.

Wedding Bells

-WOODS-WATERLAND. At St. Augustine's Church, NP, Marilyn Elizabeth, younger daughter of Mr and Mrs B.Waterland, NP, to Peter Frederick Woods, sixth son of Mrs J.Browning, London. The matron of honour was Carol Butler, Opunake, and the bridesmaid was Linda West, Tariki. The best man was Colin Butler, Opunake. Future home, New Plymouth.

MILES-PAGE. At St. Mary's Church, NP, Lynette, only daughter of Mr and Mrs H.Page, NP, to John, only son of Mr and Mrs R.Miles, England. The bridesmaid was Sharon Cleaver, NP, the best man was Dave Thomas, Auckland, and the flower-girls were Vickie Charman, Wellington, and Christine Hardy, NP. The future home, Wellington.

ALLISON-ADAMSON. At the Whiteley Methodist Church, NP, Jeanette, only daughter of Mr and Mrs G.A.Adamson, NP, to Bill, only son of Mr and Mrs W.N.A.Allison, NP. The bridesmaids were Frances Olsen, NP, Colleen Duncan, Palmerston North, and Terre Spooner, Napier. Best man was Rhys Davies, NP, and the groomsmen were Tim Johnston, Palmerston North. Future home, Palmerston North.

FIREFIGHTER COMPETITIONS

No doubt about the reason for the efficiency of the firemen in Taranaki...they're well trained and the height of keenness when it comes to competition with other brigades. Devon school was the scene of the recent competitions, and the times recorded for each event proved that the boys had both enthusiasm and training making them firefighters of a very high order. Above: Eltham men had a bit of trouble with this union. Above, left: Inglewood brigadesman had two branches in in the twinkling of an eye. Left: The Hawera boys were about as fit as we've seen them. Below, left: Stratford was right on the ball, and finished second in this event. Below: Competition winners, Hawera, put on a fine show.

Above: Like the bullet out of a gun, the Inglewood brigadesmen got off the mark, picking up hoses and branches as they went, each man having a particular job to do. Above, right: Here the Inglewood boys have everything connected for the big squirt. Right: Firemen who have had their run, rest on the grass as the Hawera boys go to it with a will.

Reflections

Below: Teams on the march in the recent Taranaki Surf Life Saving Championships on Strandon Beach. The champs were well-organised, well patronised by the public and in every way a success.

N.P.B.H.S. SWIM SPORTS

We show here some of the winners in the recent NPBS swimming championships. Top, left: I. Hay, winner of the junior 100 freestyle event. Above: D. Knapman, wins the 220 Intermediate championship. Below: G. Scales was second in the 100 Intermediate breaststroke event. Top, right: I. Hay again, this time winning the senior 100 breaststroke final. Right: Ian Jamieson and Philip Samson in a life-saving event. Below, right: T. Murray, winner of the 100 intermediate breaststroke championship.

Above: Excitement ran high at the NPBS swim championships during the running of the inter-house relay events. Here's a perfect take-off for the third leg, as five other competitors wait for their team-mates to reach the end. Below: Start of one of the championship events. Bottom: As usual, there were quite a number of parents in attendance to watch this high standard of swimming.

Wedding Bells

GOODWIN-WARD. At St. Mary's Church, NP, Rosalie Norah, fourth daughter of Mr and Mrs J. J. Ward, NP, to Donald Ross, second son of Mr and Mrs J. Goodwin, NP. The bridesmaid was Patty Oliver, NP, and the best man was John Glass, Waitara. Future home, Bell Block.

RIVERS-SIMMONDS. At Holy Trinity Church, Fitzroy, Marion, second daughter of Mr and Mrs C. J. Simmonds, NP, to Geoffrey, only son of Mr and Mrs C. Rivers, NP. The bridesmaids were Alison Horsefall, NP, and Faye Peterson, Hawera. Best man was Rex Rowe, NP, and the groomsman was Russell Hughes, NP. The flower-girl was Margaret Parrish, NP. Future home, NP.

ELHRKE-GABRIELSEN. At the Fitzroy Catholic Church, Carol, youngest daughter of Mrs E. W. Gabrielsen, NP, to David, eldest son of Mr and Mrs J. J. Elhrke, Waitara. The matron of honour was Janice Wagstaff, sister of the bride, NP, and the bridesmaid was Marie Oxenham, Waitara. Best man was Michael Elhrke, brother of the groom, Waitara, and the groomsman was Chris Dombroski, Waitara. Future home, Auckland.

N.Z.T.Q. CHAMPS

TAKARO TEAM WINS "OPEN"

Feature of the final of the TWBA "Open" tournament was the closeness of the contest between a team from Takaro, Palmerston North, and a team from Herne Bay. The Takaro team, skipped by Mrs M.Mather, just edged out the team from Herne Bay, skipped by Mrs L.Fowler. Above: Centre executive and placegetters assemble on the New Plymouth green after the final. Below: Mrs V. Read, president of the TWBA, made the presentations to the winning team.

For the "Open", the greens were particularly good--most were free and true--but there was one that had most players guessing. As can be seen in the picture above, the heads were not too close, as bowls just kept on going past the kitty. Nothing wrong with the green, of course, just that it was a little too fast to handle. Below, left: You should use your duster for your bowls, not your nose, Nancy. Below, right: Ballet bowler!

Give me a bowl here.

Now look at that!

Must steady my nerves

Wedding Bells

They're a bit big for you, curly!

That's right, mmm, keep your eyes on her!

The umbrella was for keeping the sun off, not the rain!

The latest!

Keeping the sun off.

Four up again.

Hey, that's stretching things a bit!

MCNEIL-WALLACE. At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, NP, Marion, the youngest daughter of Mrs J. Wallace, Lepperton, to Peter, eldest son of Mr and Mrs W. McNeil, Opunake. The bridesmaid was Linda McNeil, sister of the groom, Opunake, and the best man was Kevin Harvey, Oaonui. Future home, Opunake.

WEST-JURY. At St. Mary's Church, NP, Mary, third daughter of Mr and Mrs N. G. Jury, NP, to Donald, only son of Mr and Mrs A. West, NP. The matron of honour was Catherine Morris, NP, the bridesmaid was Cheryl O'Brien, NP, the best man was David Meuli, NP, and the groomsmen were Ernest Wray, NP. The flower-girl was Linise Bazeley, Waitara. The future home, NP.

Left: BAILEY-JONES. At Christchurch, Jennifer Ann, third daughter of Mr and Mrs W. A. Jones, Christchurch, to Kevin Winston, third son of Mr and Mrs H. Bailey, Inglewood. The best man was Neil Bailey, brother of the groom, Inglewood. The officiating minister was Rev. R. E. Leggott, formerly of Inglewood. Future home, Palmerston North.

W.C.N.I. ATHLETIC CHAMPIONSHIPS

Once again there were very poor fields and poorer public support for what to our mind was a very entertaining meeting at Inglewood recently for the West Coast (NI) track and field championships. How can we expect the country to be well-represented in overseas sports if we don't train more young people? It does seem such a sin, when we feel sure that there is a wealth of talent hidden in the youngsters of this province. Above, left: Pole vaulter Kevin Gibbons was an easy winner. Above, centre: R. Curnow Geilding, was the winner of the senior 3000-metre steeplechase. Here, he finishes, and top right: Flat out after this strenuous event. Above, right: C. Burns, Hawera, set a new record in the high jump event. Below: P. Stuckey, Palmerston North, R. Smith, Inglewood, and G. Christianson, Feilding in the junior 120-yard hurdles. Smith was the winner.

Above, left: Sue Kofaed, NP, won the women's discus event. Here she is shown in action as the discus flies out of her hand and goes on its journey of 150 feet. Above: Three of the field in the 3000 meter steeplechase event take one of the many jumps of the course. Below, left: Yet more records fell to Wendy Urquhart, NP, shown here winning the junior 100 event. Wendy is the most promising young athlete which the city has had in many years. Below, centre: B. Joseph, Hawera, taking part in the women's javelin event. Below, right: M. Baker, NP, comes over the water jump for the last time to win the junior 3000 meter steeplechase event.

WEDDINGS

SLIGHT-McDOWELL. At St. James's Church, NP, Jennifer, only daughter of Mrs N.K. McDowell, NP, to Rodger, eldest son of Mr and Mrs R.H. Slight, NP. The bridesmaid was Ann Waite, NP, and the best man was Lance Slight, brother of the groom. NP. Future home, New Plymouth.

FOUNDER'S DAY CEREMONY

There couldn't have been a much better setting for the recent Scouts Founder's Day ceremony than that at the bottom of the Merrilands Domain, alongside the Waiwakaiho river. In our picture above, the guest speaker, Mr A.P. Aderman, addresses a gathering of over 200 boys and parents, one of the best attended ever held in the district. Below, left: Mr E. Collins presents to Geoff Ward of the Westown troop the coveted Queen's certificate for Scouting, and at right he made two Silver Standard Duke of Edinburgh awards to Allan George and Chris Dungan, both of the West End troop.

HENDY-WEBB. At St. Mary's Church, NP, Vivien, only daughter of Mrs A.M. Webb, NP, to Christie, eldest son of Mr and Mrs I.V. Hendy, Dannevirke. The bridesmaid was Elizabeth Hutchinson, Woodville. Junior bridesmaids were Frances Hall, NP, Denise Brown, NP, and Vivienne Skews, Palmerston North. Best man was Michael Hendy, brother of the groom, Dannevirke. Future home, Wellington.

MEGAW-CLEGG. At the Whiteley Methodist Church, NP, Annette, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs R.S. Clegg, NP, to Lionel, youngest son of Mr and Mrs J. Megaw, NP. The bridesmaids were Beverley and Barbara Clegg, twin sisters of the bride. Best man was Arun Stewart, NP, and the groomsman was Joe Oliver, Okato. Future home, New Plymouth.

FIRE BRIGADE PRESENTATIONS

At a recent social at the NP Fire station, presentations were made to some of the firemen in the Taranaki district. Above: Chief Fire Officer I. X. Wesley presenting a gold star to Mr E. Thomas, captain of the NP Fire Police Corps who has completed 25 years' service. Below: Mr M. Fleet, president of the Taranaki Fire Brigades Association, presents a certificate to Fireman D. Ryder who has completed 3 years' voluntary service. Above, right: Service bars were presented to Sub-Officer Les Houston and Fireman D. Rogers who have both completed 27 years' service as volunteers. Right: Fireman T. Sampson receives a certificate of associate membership of the NZ Fire brigade institute. Below, right: Senior fireman L. Dombroski received the same certificate from the Chief Fire Officer.

MISS BROOKLANDS IN FASHION PARADE. The Tasman Hotel Lounge was packed to the doors for the very popular mannequin parade, at which the Miss Brooklands for 1967 and her competitors were introduced to the public. Here, our picture shows Miss Brooklands, Nan Taylor, on the dais, flanked by the other contestants in the beautifully decorated Tasman Marine Lounge.

BALLET AT THE BOWL. A modern ballet to delight the younger audience was "Peter and the Wolf", a picture of which is shown here. Though the attendance was disappointingly small, the night was absolutely perfect, with the lake acting as a mirror.
