BRIDE OF THE MONTH

Our bride this month is Carol, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs P.N.Raill, NP, who was recently married to John David Winter eldest son of Mr and Mrs J.E.Winter, NP, at St. Paul's Catholic Church, Spotswood. (VOGUE).

N.P.O.B. MIDGETS v. TE KUITI

MISS IZUZU IN TOWN

Miss Masato Saka, a Japanese girl who recently visited our city to promote the sale of the Izuzu car, is shown here with the staff of the local dealers, Taranaki Motors.

OUR COVER

This month we show Lyn Haase, perched on the old gun on Marsland Hill. This is a relic, the gun, not the girl, of wars fought around this area. Makes a nice picture, doesn't it?

Wedding With A Difference

Long time since we've seen such a crowd at a wedding as that which we saw at Dawn Simes's recently at St. Michael's Church. The bridal party used three gigs for transport, which helped to make this a very memorable occasion. Above: Bridal party leave the church after the ceremony. Right: Groom, Ian Ludeman, helps his bride into the gig.

Below: LUDEMAN-SIMES. At St. Michael's Church, Brooklands, Dawn Elizabeth, second daughter of Mr and Mrs A.J. Simes, NP, to Ian Claude, second son of Mr and Mrs G.A. Ludeman, Inglewood. The bridesmaids were Joan Simes, sister of the bride, NP, and Raewyn Weston, NP. Best man was Noel Ludeman, brother of the groom, NP, and the groomsman was Bob Clarke, Hawera. Future home, Inglewood. (VOGUE STUDIOS).

During the winter, on Friday nights, there's a dance on at the Motonui hall for the young people. Actually, it is run as a dancing class, by local people, for the youngsters. This, we feel is a wonderful idea and helps to give these lively young people something to do. They are taught ballroom dancing, and are a delight to watch as they glide round the floor. Right: Penalty for winning a Monte Carlo is a lap of honour. Below: Refreshments are of the soft kind. Bottom, left: A mother and son combination. Bottom, centre: There aren't many wall-flowers.

YOUNG DANCERS

This dance class at Motonui has been going for a few years, and is considered one of the most popular forms of entertainment round the district for the younger ones, though parents enjoy them, too. Above, left: Jim Stokes who does the teaching probably enjoys the chores just as much as anyone. Above, centre: Mother and daughter make a charming pair. Above right: The big moment.... "May I have this dance, please?" Right: Sitting one out. Below, left: For the oldsters to find so much enjoyment with the youngsters did our hearts good. Below, centre: Daughter watches dad's great big feet, and who can blame her! Below, centre (right): This young couple danced with practised ease. Far right: Everybody on the floor!

Odd Shots

Married

Left: GREEN-KEMSLEY. At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, NP, Beverley, second daughter of Mr and Mrs C.W. Kemsley, NP, to Kevin, only son of Mr and Mrs H.E. Green, Omata. The bridesmaid was Raewyn Kemsley, sister of the bride, NP, and the flower-girl was Kerrin Ryan, Omata. The best man was Neil Staveley, Oakura. Future home, Waitara.

Below: JULIAN-WILLIAMS. At the Knox Presbyterian Church, Fitzroy, Caroline Robyn, only daughter of Mr and Mrs P.G. Williams, NP, to Lloyd Raymond, elder son of Mr and Mrs R. Julian, NP. The bridesmaid was Glenda Paton, Opotiki, and the best man was Bruce Young, NP. Future home, New Plymouth.

King Bobs Crowned

Bobs for jobs week for boy Scouts and Cubs had the boys looking for work, and some were highly successful. The culmination was the crowning of the top Scout and Cub as Prince and King Bob at a ceremony at the St. Joseph's den. About two hundred Scouts and Cubs attended and after a camp fire sing-song, in which parents took part, the winners of the two crowns were announced. Above: Scout leaders took turns in getting the boys to sing. Left: Two Scouts from the Fitzroy troop tied for first prize and were crowned as a pair. They are A. Marsh and S. Bruce. Below: The West End Cubs provided an item. Below, left: At this function Cub leader Joy Okey received a gift for her services to the movement, from the Cub Commissioner, Mrs F. J. Coleman, with assistant Alan Gander looking on. Joy is leaving the Cubs for a while.

Here are some of the Cubs and Scouts who attended the recent evening to mark the crowning of King Bob. Far left: The two Kings Bob, A. Marsh and S. Bruce. Left: Prince Bob, the Cub earning the most money, was Russell Gayton of the Mikotahi Sea Scout troop. Below, left: Cub Commissioner Mrs F. Coleman prepares to crown Prince Bob.

20c A SQUIRT

Latest innovation at Pukekura Park is the slot machine to make the fountain work. The fountain still works at the usual prescribed hours, but outside of these hours it costs 20c a squirt.

MRS N.Z. CONTEST Kaponga Parade

The Memorial Hall at Kaponga was filled with over 600 people to see the final of the Kaponga district Mrs New Zealand contest. Twenty-two women faced the judges, and paraded as mannequins during this enjoyable evening. Far right: One of the officials, Rosalie Gibson, pins a spray on Joy Neild. Right: The contestants were Shirley Noonan; below, from left: Thelma Mune, Rita Walsh, Hazel Meier, Nita Martin, Gladys McCormick and Anne Kissick. Middle row, from left: May Kenyon, Gwen O'Neill, Dulcie Headley, Margaret Watts, Val Eliason and Teresa Taunt. Bottom, from left: Noeline Hawkins, Barbara Sangster, Joy Neild, Bernadette Crowley, Pearl Gooch and Iris Harrison.

Visitors Maiden Voyage

It's a red letter day at Port Taranaki when a ship arrives on her maiden voyage, and such was the case when the new freighter Manapouri recently arrived. She had to steam off port for a while, until the weather abated, as rough seas heralded her arrival. Built in Japan, the ship takes on a very workmanlike appearance, with her modern cargo handling gear. Above: There she is, safely tied up after her maiden voyage. Below, left: View from the bridge shows her modern cranes, used for the first time at the port. Below, right: Viewed from the wharf, she has most modern lines and looks a picture with her bright new paintwork.

Life Boys from Waitara to Okato recently took part in their annual games day at the Holy Trinity Church Hall. It was a great day for the boys, as they were in competition with each other, and every boy was out to do his best, and try not to let his company down. Left: Some of the older boys watch as junior members compete. Below left: At the finish the boys had to be in a straight line with their hands on their heads. Below: One of the many games involved jumping over chairs, and as that they were good. Bottom, left: Sometimes the lads looked a bit untidy. Below, right: Keen young chaps, and at the same time happy.

Life Boys' Games Day

The billiard rooms at Hawera were recently as full as they have ever been for a visit by the world famous Horace Lindrum. After taking on the best of players in the Hawera district, he gave a demonstration which had all the spectators gasping with surprise. So polished was his display, that the only thing Horace didn't do was make the balls talk back to him. Above: Part of the audience amused at his antics. Below: There are many ways to sink balls, as Horace showed. Right: Making the cue ball jump about two feet into the air was easy. Bottom: Potting the ball in a basket was another shot that had the crowd amused.

FIJIAN VISITORS

It was a shot in the arm for Taranaki soccer when the touring Fijian team recently played in the city at Pukekura Park. Both teams played fast, entertaining football, enjoyed we feel sure by the large crowd who braved the rain. We thought that the Taranaki team played particularly well as a highly trained unit, perhaps their best performance for many seasons. Above: Teams were greeted by the Mayor, Mr A. G. Honnor, Below: Taranaki team introduced, Right: Fijians introduced. Bottom: Fijian player gets the ball past goalie Dick Stephens to score.

Small Field in Mountain Race

Only twenty-nine riders faced the starter for the professional round the mountain race this year. It is a pity, for the trophies are as good as for any other race in the country. For the 29 hardy riders, it was a test of fitness, as their journey was done in pouring rain. Here are most of the riders who took part. Right, top: Scratch bunch with D. Herbert, NP, in the lead. Right: The 20-minute men led by B.Langman, who was unlucky with a puncture near the finish when he was well in the lead. Below: First men away, M.Cattley and D.Turner, both NP. Bottom, left: Small bunch here, with riders Gary Stratton (28) and I.Selby (27) both of NP. Below, right: A.Peter-son, Waimate, leads his bunch on the 25-minute mark. Bottom, right: G. Knuckey, NP, and R.Wis- newski, Stratford, head M.Carr and Alby Hayward, both New Plymouth riders.

The only time the sun shone for the 100-mile mountain race was at the finish. Right: Finish post at the racecourse provided a grandstand for the smaller fry. Below: Gary Stratton, NP, scrap- ed into the money prizes. Bottom, left: Third man home was Grant Knuckey, NP. Below, right: Winner K. Jeffrey, Ch-ch, crosses the line only feet in front of NP's G.Wills. Bottom, centre: Winner K. Jeffrey faced the press after his win. Bottom, right: Sash and trophy for the winner.

Changing Face

The layout of our port is changing very gradually, and a trip up Paritutu, where this photo was taken from, will convince one that the work being done, though not as pronounced from the beach as is very evident when one gains a bit of height. In this picture, the new breakwater can be seen coming in from the right of the picture, with the new wharf taking shape just below that. The bay on the left is due for reclamation as a site for the coal fired power station.

NEW RANGE OPENED BY SHARP-SHOOTING MAYOR

NP's Mayor Mr A.G. Honnor recently opened the new deer range at Waiwakaiho with some very fancy shooting. After welcoming the visitors to the range, below, he was then invited to have a shot himself. Above: He's left-handed ("I've got a crook eye"), and we were a bit diffident about taking this picture. Our worries were soon dispelled, as he scored a bull with his first round and is shown, above right, hitting the moving target. Right: Herald photographer Rob Tucker gets an unusual picture of the Mayor. You should have pulled the trigger Alf, then we would have got the press picture of the year.
