Bride of the Month

There's little doubt about the setting for a bride at Brooklands Park. Here we show among the spring flowers at the park Sharon, only daughter of Mr and Mrs Les McKoy, Fitzroy, who was recently married to Kerry Beaufaire, third son of Mr and Mrs F. Beaufaire, NP. (VOGUE).

OUR COVER

Spring is here! Not that you'd notice! Yet, during one of those fine spells, we managed to capture the spirit of spring at Brooklands Park with Janette Higgins, a New Plymouth 18-year-old who is training to be a teacher. Janette makes a very pretty picture as she swings on a tree over a bed of spring flowers.

BACK COVER

Top: Not exactly a winter sport for us old codgers, but an exhilarating one for the young people. They tell us that the winter is a good time to surf at NP, with some good surfing waves.

Bottom: Will this be our local beach of the future? A track has been formed down to the back beach at Paritutu. Quite a pretty setting, eh?

TROLLEY DERBY WINNER

NZ GYM CHAMPIONS. It would seem that the gymnastic field of sport within the province is becoming very much higher in quality than it has in the past, with the Taranaki team, B grade girls, winning the recent NZ Championship. Here are three members of that team. Above: Christine Thacker. Below, left: Suzanne Johnson, and above, right: Wendy Drake. These girls are from NP. The other two members of the winning team are Mandy Riley and Adele Wilton of Hawera. Below, right: NP's Jim Thorne who was placed fifth overall in the junior men's champs.

WE GOT WALLOPED

There's no doubt about it, we were beaten, as Ross Brown said, up front and in the backs. Yes, we'll have to admit that the boys from the Bay have a fine team—certainly too good for us. It looks like the shield will stay in the Bay for a time yet. Above: Ross Brown gets a kick away. Below: With Clarke on the ground, Eliason comes round for the ball. Above, left: Eliason played well in the line-outs. Right: John Major gets his hands to the ball. Below, right: Ferdie did at least get a "sniff" of the shield!

"KING BOB" CROWNED

The Fitzroy Scout den was packed for the crowning of Prince and King Bob, the two boys who had earned most in the recent Bobs for Jobs campaign. The programme saw the boys providing a lot of singing for the parents, and good singing it was too. Above: Happy faces among the Cubs. Right: District Cub Commissioner, Mrs Coleman, prepares Prince Bob, Ken Billing, Central troop, who made the magnificent sum of $8.04. Below, left: Prince Bob, Ken Billing, and centre, King Bob, David Purcell, Oakura troop, who made $14. Below, right: Mrs Coleman crowns Prince Bob.

Above: Deputy Area Commissioner Roy Cooper had the task of crowning King Bob, David Purcell, as Prince Bob smiles his approval. Below: After the crowning ceremony, the top brass of the Scouting organisation saluted the two boys, and seemed very happy about it. Above, right: Assistant District Commissioner, Ed Collins, presented a warrant to the new Assistant District Cub Leader, Alan Gander. ## ANGLICAN HOLIDAY PROGRAMME

This year, during the August holidays, the Holy Trinity Church, Fitzroy, held a holiday programme for the children of the parish. The gathering received religious instruction, and in their hobby groups they made many useful things. Above: The girls concentrate on getting their miniature gardens absolutely perfect. Below: These boys help each other to make useful articles out of empty packets and any other waste material available.

PONY CLUB SCHOOL IN N.P.

Recently the NP Pony Club held a riding school at the NP racecourse. The school was to train the children in general horsemanship and many took advantage of this. Special courses were laid out to train both horses and riders. Above, left: Barbara Jones successfully clears one of the hurdles. Above, centre: Jumping the hurdles seems no trouble to Jenny Blyde on Goldie. Above, right: Lea Glengarry on Tammy prepares to jump one of the many hurdles. Centre: Mrs McDonald, Te Pahu, the instructor at the school, gives her pupils some advice. Below: The girls watch the team members with a critical eye.

Toll Girls' Battle

The annual battle between the toll girls of NP and Stratford was a fierce "go" this year. We felt that it is a good job the girls have a little more natural padding than the men; this surely absorbed some of the shock! It was a great game, with Stratford running out winners 12-3...we think the ref. must have come from Stratford! Above: The victorious team of huskies from Stratford. Bottom: The vanquished from NP.

TARANAKI PLAYERS DID WELL

The NZ badminton championships at the YMCA stadium provided some exciting matches, with Taranaki having a particularly successful time winning quite a few of the titles at stake. Our own Richard Purser won three senior titles. Above: Here's Richard Purser with Owen Clegg in the process of winning the men's doubles. Below: Janet Dick, NP, and Robin Glenie, Auckland, were the winners of the Under 19 girls' doubles. Right: Dallas Bint, Lepperton, won the under 16 singles title. Below, right: Ian Willans and Bryan Purser won the under 19 doubles.

Richard Purser and A.Glenie, Auckland, were the victors in the mixed doubles.

Auckland triumphed in the women's doubles with Alison Glenie and Gaynor Weatherley.

Winners of the veterans' ladies doubles for the third year in succession were Mesdames B.Skeen and M.Miller.

Bert Sutcliffe, the cricketer, now a Rothmans representative presented his firm's trophy to Reg Skeen, captain of the Auckland team which just pipped Taranaki by the slimmest of margins.

S.Craig, Wellington, ex-Taranaki, won the Girls' Plate event.

Bryan Purser collected as many championship cups as his brother Richard.

Junior All Blacks Overwhelmed

After a couple of trials, the junior All Black selectors fielded a side against Taranaki that looked very good on paper, but it was a different story on the paddock. The home forward pack just rolled the juniors back and took command of the game. Above: A. Smith and I. Eliason worked well together. Below: Wards goes in to tackle. Above, right: Jenkins collars his man. Right: Wards and Wills together. Below, right: Schep gets this kick away, with Hurley coming up in support.

Above: NEAL-MALONE. At St. Joseph's Catholic Church, NP, Patricia Anne, second daughter of Mr and Mrs A. J. Malone, NP, to Keith George, youngest son of Mrs N. J. Neal, NP, and the late Mr Neal. The bridesmaids were Denise Malone, sister of the bride, NP, and Anita Martelletti, Hawera. The best man was Kevin Wood, NP, and the groomsmen were Tom Butters, Wanganui. The flower-girls were Eileen and Kathryn Pond, Gisborne. Future home, Hawera.

Below: ASHBY-HURLEY. At St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Patea, Jaqueline Erin Patricia, only daughter of Mr and Mrs P. Hurley, Alton, to Murray Leslie, second son of Mr and Mrs L. T. Ashby, Marton. The bridesmaids were Janice Scown, Carol Hurley, and Frances Myers. The best man was Wally Hodder, Turangi, and the groomsmen were Paul Campbell, Manaia, and Gary Ashby, brother of the groom, Marton. Future home, Turangi.

BEATEN — BUT NOT DISGRACED

The touring Tasmania women's indoor basketball team recently fought out a great duel with the local North Taranaki girls. It was a thrilling game from start to finish, and the local girls provided some of the stiffest opposition that the Tasmanians have met on their NZ tour. It was superior shooting at the net which earned the winning margin of 44-19, but with the score at 18-12 at half time it looked like anyone's game. Above: These are the North Taranaki girls, from left: Captain Tui Gerhoeffler, Robin Samson, Maureen Hammersley, Janet Taylor, Betty Whalen, Lesley Skelton, Lorraine Limmer, Raewyn Skelton and Mary Clark. Below, left: Lorraine Limmer gets sandwiched between two attacking Tasmanians. Below, right: Lorraine again in the thick of the play.

Out and About

The old timers of the Waterside Rugby League club certainly put up a great battle against their younger counterparts in the annual Old Timers v. Present Players match. We thought it would have been a walk-over for the older chaps by the number of players they had on the paddock. Above: Head-on smash coming up! Above, right: The old 'uns were in the thick of it, but just that trifle too late. Right: Here, Barry Marsh and Bill Walker beat the young fry to the ball.

Children on holiday from school are usually at a loose end, not so these children caught by our roving camera during the holiday. Left: Peter Jones spent a lot of his time exercising his pet dog. Centre: Ross Johnston was practising to be a traffic cop. Right: David and Jo O'Gorman, visitors from Tokoroa, visited the zoo at Brooklands Park, with their father.

Old Timers Got Winded

The Watersiders Rugby League team recently accepted a challenge from the past players to a game. While some of the older players had kept themselves fairly fit, it was obvious that some of the others had gone to seed as it were. This is not to say that the players of today's team had it all their own way; we think the ref. could have helped the old 'uns a bit more. Above: Old 'uns Bruce Walker and Les Fox bear down on Jo Bishop and "Popeye". Below: Johnnie Hapi looked anything but that after his clash with Bill Walker. Right: Just look at the condition some of the older players had collected. Below, right: This just goes to show that the old 'uns were in the thick of it.
