

Married

Left: JURY-FRASER.
At St. Mary's Anglican Church, NP, Helen, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs Fraser, Bell Block, to Graeme Jury, youngest son of Mrs Fitzgerald, NP, and the late Mr Jury. The bridesmaid was Irene Fraser, sister of the bride, Bell Block, and the best man was Gary Eldershaw, NP. The flower-girl was Karen Farquhar. Future home, NP.

Below: GOODIN-DRAKE.
At St. Andrew's Anglican Church, Inglewood, Jenny, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs N. H. Drake, Inglewood, to Paul, youngest son of Mr and Mrs H. A. Goodin, Fitzroy. The bridesmaids were Dianne Presland, Inglewood, and Patricia Drake, sister of the bride, Inglewood. The best man was Alan Eriwata, Fitzroy, and the groomsman was Rodney Eynon, Fitzroy. Future home, New Plymouth.

AMATEUR 50-MILE RACE

The Open 50-mile Handicap to Stratford and return organised by the NPZRC attracted large fields for all of their events. Sixty-five riders took part in the senior event. Above: The second man home in the seniors, B. Whale, Wanganui, leads a large bunch over the finishing line. Below: Winner of the event was New Plymouth's D.M. Hill, shown crossing the line after a grueling 50-mile ride. Left: Winner of the A grade colts was K. Russell of Morrinsville. Below, left: Second home in the A grade colts was C. Haw, NP, followed closely by L. Bartle, Rotorua.

Hawera COMPETITIONS

Success, year after year, is the story of the Hawera Competitions held during the August school holidays. This year, no fewer than 1600 took part in this enjoyable week of competitions, drawing entries from as far as Auckland in the north and Wellington in the south. Above, left: Winners of the tap troupe open section were, from left, Judith Choldcroft, Anne Manning, Carol Harvey and Wendy Sole of the Colleen Hoskin School of Dancing, Waitara. Above, right: Denise Loasby, NP, winner of the under 8 ballet cup. Below, left: Paul Huffam, Hawera, in a character recital. Below, right: Winners of the group dance get final instruction from their teacher. From left, Wynne Ellingham, Rayna Hayward, Christine Douglas and Peta Spooner.

Above: Entertainment group winner at the recent Hawera Competitions was this group from the Patea High School, led by Beverley Baker. Below: Raewyn Prestidge presents a bouquet to the judge Shirley Carter. Above, right: Myra Smith won the Veal Rosebowl. Right: Stage manager for the past 24 years, Neil Muggeridge takes a break at the end of a hectic week. Below, right: Lyn Hill, Hawera, receives her cup from judge Shirley Carter.

Above, from left: These are some of the many cup winners at the recent Hawera Competitions. Cushla Boyle received the banner for choir section on behalf of the Holy Trinity Choir of Hawera. Maria Brooks got a small cup but was nevertheless proud of it. Gregory Dixon, Ararata, won this massive trophy in the speech section. Shona Best, Hawera, smiles at our camera after receiving her trophy. Below, from left: Leonie Whalen enjoys this proud moment. Jeannie Morrison, Hawera, walks off stage with her spoils, and well-earned they were too. Brian Courtney, a lad with a future in the entertainment world. Marise Martin, Inglewood, clutches her trophy after presentation.

More competitors at the Hawera competitions. Above, from left: Two cups were won by Jill Woolford, Tauranga, Wendy Sole, NP, thinks this a proud moment in her stage career. Gail Tippett, Hawera, was the winner of the Piano Solo section 14-16 years. Julie Prestney, NP, performs on stage like an old trouper. Below, left: Junior choir winners line up for their trophy. They were from the St. Joseph's School, Hawera. Below, centre: Wendy Sole, NP, performs a character dance. Below, right: Colleen Simpson, Hawera, winner of the Light Opera solos section.

Something Coming Up?
Give Us a Call

When we attend a function, we don't stop at one photograph. "Photo News" is the ONLY newspaper that gives COMPLETE photographic coverage. And what is more, we do this SEVEN days a week. So don't be backward in giving us a ring if your organisation has something coming up. Just phone 6101 or 88843, and after hours the number is 88712.

Wedding Bells

Left: GOLDSWORTHY-ROWE. At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, NP, Noeline, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs R.C. Rowe, Waitara, to Brian, eldest son of Mr and Mrs G. Goldsworthy, NP. The bridesmaids were Sherrin Cleaver, Tarata, and Joy Frethey, Waitara. The best man was Rodney Goldsworthy, brother of the groom, Dunedin, and the groomsman was Barry Spicer, Auckland. Future home, Waitara.

Below: JENKINS-GORDGE. At St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Kaponga, Winifred Anne, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs G. H. R. Gordge, Kaponga, to Raymond Stuart, son of Mr and Mrs S. W. Jenkins, NP. The bridesmaids were Judy Malone, Auckland, Selma Gordge, sister of the bride, and Suzanne and Denise Eldridge. The best man was Ian Eliason, Kaponga, and the groomsman was Allan Jenkins, Ngaere. Future home, New Plymouth.

Roving Camera

GRADUATE COMMUNITY NURSES

Above: These five community nurses recently graduated after training at the NP Hospital. From left they are, Valerie Sears, Annette Revell, Carol Paul, Lynette Smith and Fay Billig.

AFTER 30 YEARS' SERVICE

Right: Mr Barry Jarvis, right, who recently completed 30 years' service with the Shell Oil Company, was presented with a token of recognition by the director, Mr C. F. McKinney, Wellington, who made the journey specially for this presentation.

ACCIDENT

These two cars collided recently on the intersection of Vivian and Robe Streets. A very dangerous intersection which should have "Give Way" signs. Fortunately no serious injury resulted.

N.P. HAWERA HARRIER RELAY

Organised by the NP and Hawera Harriers clubs, this was the first such event to have been held, and it proved a success with seven teams entered from as far as Rotorua and Palmerston North. It was a well-balanced New Plymouth team that finished first in the event. Above: Runners in the first leg from the NP Racecourse start on the long relay. Below: R. Sutherland passes on the baton to his team mate Eric Kemp. Both were running for the Wanganui team. Right: First over the Te Henui bridge on Junction road was Gerry Allen, Hawera A team, followed by Wanganui's R. Sutherland and NP's Ian Barry, below, right:

Above, left: Member of the NP team John Heather, left, receives the baton from Peter Goodchap. Left: Hawera B team make their first change at the Mangorei Hall. Above: Gerry Allen, Hawera A team, steps off the road after handing the baton over to his team mate. Below: NP team man Ian Barry has just finished his first leg as he sends team mate Allan Jones on his way.

You Should Have Been There!

How often have we heard this remark from people who had attended a function at which there was no photographer. Matter of fact, our stock reply is, "Well, we would have been there, if you had let us know about the function". And that just about sums up the situation. If you've got a "do" coming up, be a sport, give us a ring at 6101 or 88843. Or if you don't think about it until the evening, then the number is 88712.

Wedding Bells

Left: ADAMSON-CALDWELL. At St. John's Presbyterian Church, Hawera, Raewyn Ann, third daughter of Mr and Mrs R. E. Caldwell, Hawera, to Donald William, eldest son of Mr and Mrs D. Adamson, Normanby. The bridesmaid was Lynette Hall, Manutahi, and the best man was Neville Adamson, brother of the groom, Normanby. Future home, Hawera. (DAVID PAUL).

Below: MOREHU-GRIFFITHS. At St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Manaia, Eileen, youngest daughter of Mrs H. Griffiths, Victoria, Australia, to Neville, second son of Mr and Mrs T. Morehu, Manaia. The matrons of honour were Mrs C. Workman, Wellington, and Mrs F. Hohahia, Opunake. The best man was Lindsay Carr, Manaia, and the groomsman was Lionel Morehu, brother of the groom, Manaia. Future home, Wellington. (DAVID PAUL STUDIO).

POSH PUB FOR RAHOTU RESIDENTS

Now in the throes of near completion is the new hotel at Rahotu. It is being built just at the rear of the old premises, above, which, looking at them from this angle, seem to indicate that they have fulfilled their usefulness. The new building, below, is a well designed one, and will afford more civilised drinking facilities for the inhabitants of the district. In close proximity to the new hotel, shown just behind it in our photograph, is the Rahotu Hall.

Taranaki Hairdressing Championships

One thing's for sure. The hairdressers of this province are not only proud of their profession, but keen to show just how good they are in competition. The Stratford Memorial Hall was filled with competitors for the whole of one day recently, for their annual champs, which this year created records with the number of entries. Above: Placegetters in the Junior Setting competition. Other pictures on this page are of competitors in this event. Above, right: President Mr Cook helps a girl with her cape. Below, from left: Rosamond Mantle, Stratford, and her model Beverly Lane, who gained third place in this competition. Julie Salisbury, NP, who got fourth place. Marie Cook, Hawera. Bottom, from left: Pam Richardson, Manaia, Margaret Beavis, NP, and finally Gaynor Gatland, Waitara.

Janis Sutherland, NP, was first in the Open Impromptu class.

Elizabeth Read, NP, was second placegetter in the Open Impromptu.

Sharron Fraser, NP.

Annette Gibbons, NP.

Julie Gyde, NP, took her work very seriously.

Donna Paul, NP.

Robyn Waite, Hawera, hard at work on her model.

Margot Spilman, Wanganui.

Anne Sherriff, Eltham.

CONVERSION FROM DAY TO EVENING STYLES. This competition called for a lot of imagination from the hairdressers, and the judges had a hard time separating the top half a dozen. Above: First four placegetters in this event. Above, right: Marlene Crawford, NP, adds the spray that holds their creations in place. Below, left: Judge Peter Stenning wearing a worried look. Below, centre: One last look by Donna Paul, NP. Below, right: Elizabeth Read, NP, second in the competition, with her model. Bottom, left: Julie Salisbury, NP. Bottom, right: The judges hard at work on their unenviable task.

The Open Setting competition was perhaps the most exacting of all, with competitors coming from afar to try their luck at lifting some of our magnificent trophies. Above: The first four placegetters, with their models. Above, right: Winner of this event was Judith Allen, NP, shown here hard at work. Below, left: Anne Senior, NP, was fourth in this open event. Below, centre: Marie Cook, Hawera. Below, right: Julie Gyde, NP, third placegetter. Bottom, left: Dianne Dakers, Hawera. Below, centre: Margot Spillman, Wanganui. Below, right: Margaret Wallace, Huntly, who was second overall in this competition.

Following the competitions, there was a ball in the Stratford Memorial Hall, and presentation of trophies. Needless to say, everyone enjoyed themselves, as is always the way with the Hair-dressers' social functions. Above: Anne Senior, NP, was the winner of the Junior Setting up to 4 years' experience. Above, right: Winner of the Open Styling was New Plymouth's Judith Allen. Below, left: Janis Sutherland, NP, winner of the Open Impromptu. Below, right: Lesley Jared, Wellington, first in the junior up to 2 years. Bottom, left: Elizabeth Read, NP, was second in the Open Impromptu. Bottom, right: Julie Gyde and her model were third in the Open Styling.

Goodbye Guv... and Good Luck!

So much have Sir Bernard and Lady Fergusson endeared themselves to the people of this province that we affectionately say "Goodbye Guv, and good luck". This was the last visit we will have from this very popular Governor General and his good lady, and it was with a touch of sadness that farewells were said at the NP Airport when they finally departed after a lightning visit to the city. Below: The last shot of Their Excellencies as they boarded their plane for Wellington. Right: In the War Memorial Hall, Sir Bernard found time to talk to many. Centre, right: Sir Bernard arrives at the packed hall for the civic farewell. Bottom: Official party listens as Sir Bernard makes his final address.

Above: Two Inglewood Brownies wait to present a posy to Lady Fergusson as they prepared to leave for Wellington. The girls are Janice Knowles and Judy Ayling. Above, right: The War Memorial Hall in New Plymouth was crowded for the farewell civic reception for the Governor-General, Sir Bernard, and Lady Fergusson. It was pleasing to see so many civic-minded people at this ceremony. Below: After the arrival at the airport, Their Excellencies motored to Pukeiti but stopped on the way at Bell Block to say some words with the pupils of the Bell Block school who had lined the roadside for this important occasion. Centre, right: Smiles all round as the two Inglewood Brownies present a spray to Lady Fergusson. Centre, far right: A friendly handshake for the police on duty at the airport on their departure. Bottom, centre: Sir Bernard had a smile and handshake for almost everyone. Bottom, right: Lady Fergusson took a great deal of interest in the Guides and Brownies who had assembled a guard of honour at their departure.

Engaged

Above, left: COLSON-OGLE. Lorraine, younger daughter of Mr and Mrs W.F.Ogle, Hawera, to Dennis, youngest son of Mr and Mrs G.W.Colson, Hawera. (DAVID PAUL STUDIOS).

Left: SHAW-LUXTON. Lesley, only daughter of Mr and Mrs J.F.Luxton, Urenui, to Robert, eldest son of Mr and Mrs J.T.Shaw, NP. (VOGUE STUDIOS)

Below, left: TRIM-SUTHERLAND. Helen, elder daughter of Mr and Mrs N.A.Sutherland, Aiton, to Kelvin, elder son of Mr and Mrs L.W.Trim, Maniaia. (DAVID PAUL STUDIOS).

Above: McELDOWNEY-HILL. Glenys, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs F.R.Hill, Ratapiko, to Ian, son of Mr and Mrs G.McEldowney, Inglewood. (VOGUE STUDIOS).

Below: THACKER-JOHNS. Erice, third daughter of Mr and Mrs R.D.Johns, NP, to Graeme John, eldest son of Mr and Mrs J.H.Thacker, NP. (VOGUE).

SHIELD PARADE IN NAPIER

It was a great pre-match parade in Napier--as good as any that we have had in New Plymouth--with floats displaying all the dire threats which used to adorn our own floats of the past shield era. And they were no idle threats either: Above, left: Hawkeye is an impressive mascot for the Bay. Above, left: Here's a new kind of eating house, and you should have seen the menu, mostly made up of Taranaki players! Below, left: "Watch out for the birdie, Ferdie" says the sign. We did! Below, right: Now just fancy nurses not knowing any better than that! They tried to milk him...or were they looking for foot and mouth disease?

OLD COURTHOUSE ALMOST GONE

By the time that this issue is on sale, there will be very little, if anything, of the old courthouse in Robe Street remaining. It's good to see some of these old buildings disappearing from the local scene, making way for fine modern structures, but we feel that this old building will not disappear without a certain amount of nostalgia, from folks involved in minor cases in a magistrate's court to those involved in murder trials. Above: This was all that was left of the building when it was photographed two weeks ago. Below: The interior provided some very fine timber. This is the view which many prisoners have faced.

Changing Face

With new buildings taking the place of old ones in the city, we are fast becoming modern in our skyline. This applies particularly with the western end of Devon Street, with a new courthouse, a new Government building nearing completion, above, and the new Catholic church and hall, which will be alongside the Government building. All that remains now is the removal of the old Post Office, and we'll have a fine new block of modern buildings of which the city can be proud. The Government building, above, is now more than just a maze of scaffolding. Below: Once more, a new building in the heart of the city, that of the NZ Insurance Company on the corner of Gill and Currie Streets. When this is completed, more roadway will be available to the motorist and it will iron out a dog leg on this part of the road.

BATTLE OF BRITAIN REMEMBERED

The recent anniversary of the Battle of Britain was marked by a short service and wreath laying at the Cenotaph in New Plymouth. There was a large contingent of ATC Cadets at the ceremony who were backed by ex-RNZAF men and ex-WAAF's. Above: The gathering at the Cenotaph as the officiating minister delivers his address. Below: Planes from the NP Aero Club provided a fly-past over the Cenotaph. Right: RSA officials lay their wreath. Below, right: Women's organisations remembered too.

Above: Been round to St. Mary's Church lately in Vivian Street? If you do, just have a look at that unsightly ex-boarding house opposite the church, and right in between two very clean and elegant private homes. This surely is a bad advertisement for the city, being right opposite its most visited attraction. An empty section would be a better sight than this decrepit old building.

Above: See these tyre marks? They were recently done by some of the more irresponsible youths of the town as they raced around this corner, virtually on two wheels. And just imagine what would have happened had someone or something been coming round in the opposite direction! Teenagers get a bad name, but it's only the few like these idiots who get that name for this section of our community and it's high time that these larrikins were stopped. We would be only too happy to report any that we see doing such stupid things as this, it's up to the citizens to follow suit. By doing this we MIGHT make our roads a little safer.

Engaged

Above, left: GRANT-CROW. Elizabeth Mary, (Mitty), eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs A. C. E. Crow, NP, to Leonard Charles, second son of Mr and Mrs L. Grant, NP. (HENRY MCGEE STUDIOS).

Left: LASSEY-FLYNN. Robyn, elder daughter of Mr R. Flynn, Waitara, to Keith, elder son of Mr and Mrs A. Lassey, Auckland.

Below, left: WARDS-HALL. Diane, only daughter of Mr and Mrs Albert Hall, Kakaramea, to Ian, eldest son of Mr and Mrs Frank Wards, Manutahi.

Married

Above: BILLING-MACKS. At Holy Trinity Church, Fitzroy, Annette, second daughter of Mr and Mrs H. C. Macks, NP, to Kevin, second son of Mr and Mrs F. J. Billing, Rahotu. The bridesmaids were June Ellice, NP, and Jennifer Macks, sister of the bride, NP. Alec O'Connell was the best man and Bill O'Connell was the groomsman. Future home, Rahotu.

Coming of Age

Below: Rick, eldest son of Mr and Mrs J. Ewington, NP, with his mother and father on the occasion of his 21st birthday.

Married

Left: KLEMRA-BARR. At St. Andrew's Anglican Church, NP, Patricia, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs L. Barr, NP, to Zbigniew (Bill), eldest son of Mr and Mrs L. Klemra, NP. The bridesmaids were Lynda Barr, sister of the bride, NP, and Helen Klemra, sister of the groom, NP. The best man was Edward Klemra, brother of the groom, NP. Future home, New Plymouth.

Below: MUMBY-THOMPSON. At St. Augustine's Anglican Church, NP, Marianne Grace Thompson, daughter of Mr and Mrs J. H. Garlick, Urenui, to Robert, youngest son of Mr R. Mumby, Inglewood, and the late Mrs Mumby. The bridesmaids were Del Garlick, sister of the bride, Urenui, and Louise McCarthy, NP. The best man was Greg Nixon, Wellington, and the groomsman was Kevin Nixon, Stratford. The flower-girl was Deborah White, Auckland. Future home, Auckland.

TARANAKI'S CONVINCING WIN

From the result of this game, it is obvious that the home boys go far better in muddy conditions. Wanganui never really recovered from the shock of finding itself two goals down in the first two minutes of the game, when Taranaki showed that they were there to get a job done. Leading 2-1 at half time, the Taranaki team went on to win comfortably 5-3. Above: The hardest working player on the field was the Wanganui goalkeeper M. Remfrey, who, despite several fine saves, like the one pictured, was beaten five times. Left: Remfrey, once again called on to make a desperate save in the face of the foraging Taranaki forwards. Below, left: All the Wanganui defenders had a hard day. Below: Remfrey's agility kept the score down.

N.Z. JUNIOR BRASS BAND

During the August school holidays, the town was invaded by junior brass bandmen from all parts of the country. Among those taking part were a few from the province, and at the end of the week the youngsters had learned a lot and provided the public with some very good music. A concert on the Thursday proved that they were a good combination, and provided a fine programme for the full hall to enjoy. Here is the complete band, taken by VOGUE studios.

Provincial Boxing Championships

Fifty-six bouts were fought out recently for the Taranaki boxing championships, and the last fight on the bill was held way past midnight. It was perhaps the most successful contest held for many years and it seems that the sport is on the up grade in the province. Above: One of the best bouts of the night was between T.Perrett, Hawera, left, and A.Kettle, Waitara. The former won on points. Below: G.Newport, Waitara, retained his title against A.Eru, Rotorua. Above, right: R. Peters, Taupo, was the winner against H. Chadfield, Wanganui. Right: R.Feaver, Opunake, lost this semi-final to A.Eru, Rotorua. Below, right: F.Beamsley, Dannevirke, right, beat G. Flay, Waitara, in the junior lightweight class.

Above: In the Intermediate lightweight final, D.Dewar, Rahotu, beat R.Farrant, Oakura. Below: C.Rolleston, Rotorua, gets a clip on the jaw from C.Hickey, Opunake. Rolleston won on points. Above, right: D.Jackson, Oakura, and G.Field Waipukurau provided plenty of fireworks. Right: P.Fitzgerald, Palmerston North, left, was a worthy winner against N.Farrant, Oakura. Below right: I.Drewery, Oakura, right, was a good winner against S.Ngaitai, Manaia.

