

OAKURA BOXING TOURNNEY

Yet another success for the Oakura Boxing Club when their recent tournament proved an exciting and varied show. The hall, as usual, was filled to capacity with a good muster of women present. Above: T. Moore, Matamata, plants one on the nose of A. Kettle, Waitara, during their fast bout. Below: Kettle retaliates, but produces a near miss. Above, right: One of the best bouts of the evening was between W. Skedgewell, Stratford, who is seen here executing a successful right cross, and Russell Farranr, Oakura. Right: David Dewar, Rahotu, put up a great show against the most experienced J. Augustine, Dannevirke. Below, right: Ian Drury, Oakura, blocks a right from P. Sherry, Matamata, during their aggressive bout.

Farewell to Rev. and Mrs Kitto

Health stamp Salesmen

Celebrations

Taumarunui Beat Fitzroy

Three basketball teams from Taumarunui recently came to the city to play games against three of the Northern Division teams. The visit was an enjoyable one, and it is likely that there will be more visits of this nature. The Fitzroy team, photographed on this page, played hard, but not quite hard enough, Taumarunui proving just that little bit too experienced for them. Above: Margaret Scannell was just too late to intercept this pass. Below: Visiting player reaches the ball. Above, right: Race for the ball. Right: Marie Hall staves off this rush by the visiting players. Below, right: Referee Marie Jackson gets ready to blow for an infringement.

Hairdressers Compete

The Opera House had a fair muster of people for the recent hairdressing competitions organised by a nation-wide toiletry firm. Twelve of the best hairdressers in Taranaki competed, and when the judges came to do their work it was about the toughest job that one could imagine. Above: Winner of the contest, Mrs Lyndsay Loveridge, at work on her model, Beverley Lines. Below: It was a long wait after they had finished for models Tricia Littlejohn and Diane Nairn. Above, right: Waiting for the word "go". Right: After the start, dozens of busy fingers got to work creating a hair-do. Below, right: One of the judges, Howard Sinclair, has a final look at the models.

So many top line productions have we seen at the Inglewood High School, that we have come to expect only the best from them. Their latest production, The Liar, by Carlo Goldini, was no exception. Costumes, lighting, and set were all of a very high standard, and the acting was as good as any we've seen. The artists seemed to live their parts, not that we infer that all Inglewood High School pupils are liars! They most certainly are good players. Above: See what we mean about the costuming? Above, right: Laurie Biesick and Ben Corney provided much laughter for the audience. Right: Laurie Biesick tries his lies on Sharon Rumball and Joanne Long. Below: Here's the set, which must have taken some thinking out.

"THE LITTLE SWEEP" AT N.P.G.H.S.

Benjamin Britten's charming operetta "The Little Sweep" was presented recently by pupils of the New Plymouth Girls' High School. It was a good choice, very creditably performed by the all-girl cast, and while audiences were not quite as large as they might have been, all those who saw the show seemed delighted with it. Audience participation is a strong point with "The Little Sweep"...it is one of the few stage shows where the audience joins in the singing. Production (by Dorne Arthur), scenery (painted by the school art classes), the acting, and the musical accompaniment...these were all good, and a credit to the school. Above: Preliminary session sounds out the idea of presenting an operetta. Below: At the rehearsal stage, Sam, the sweep boy, is cast with Heather Mossman in the role, and the music is tried out.

Above: Now we come to the opera proper. With Sam the sweep about to be discovered, he is helped into a cloth, to be wrapped and hidden. Right: With the sweep hidden away from his master, Juliet (Elizabeth Schultze) faints, thinking Sam will be discovered, and as a diversion to the hunters. Below: Adopted by benefactors, Sam is dressed more in keeping with his surroundings. Below, right: Susan Zimmerman, Sheryl Hone, Christine Allen and Janet McCutchan in a concluding scene.

Kia Ora Beat Taumarunui

In a basketball game against a visiting team from Taumarunui, Kia Ora ran out winners mostly with much more accurate passing and team work.

Hastie, Inglewood Matron of honour was Lorraine Frampton, NP, and the bridesmaid was Gloria Bell, Tokoroa. Best man was Arthur Drake, NP, and the groomsmen were Neil Greiner, brother of the bride, Hawera. Future home, Tikorangi.

HAWERA COMPS

The number of entries was slightly down on last year at the Hawera Competitions, but the quality of the performers was as high as ever its been. Above: Winners of the entertainment section with "Wizard of Oz" were Gregory Roebuck, Gay Eversfield, Jennifer Angus, Karen Sole and Helen Manning. Below: Gay Eversfield receiving the cup on behalf of the troupe from the judge of that section. Above, right: Biggest job at the presentations was that done by the smallest person, 3-year-old Heida Draper, Stratford. Here she walks across a vast stage to present bouquets, right, and her duty done, below, she coyly cutsies to the audience. She's our pet!

Above: The Beverley Quay school of dancing pupils won the group dancing section for over 13-year-olds. Here is the group including Lynda Wright, Nanette Collinson, Raewyn Prestidge, Kim Pease and Jeane Morrison. Below: "Wizard of Oz" troupe during their performance at the demonstration concert. ## INTERESTING HOLIDAYS

There's been some great entertainment for the children during the August holidays at the New Plymouth library. In the morning there's book reading for the very young, and in the afternoon all sorts of activities take place. Our photographer visited the library on a see and taste idea of foreign countries. Children dressed up in national costume, and afterwards partook of some of that country's national dishes. Top, left: Catherine van Passen, a sweet little Dutch girl. Above, centre: Carol Leong, a Chinese girl. Above: Roseline Robins, a braw Scots lass. Left, centre: Julie Jacobsen, a coy Welsh girl. Left: Jane Burgess, Scandinavian lass, in her colourful costume. Bottom, left: Mrs van Passen doles out pea coup. Below: This little girl, Pauline James, found some food to her liking.

Okato Guides' Birthday

The Okato Guide Company had guests from all round the coast for the celebration of its tenth birthday held in the High School Hall recently. Above, left: Dorothy Andrews, first of the first class girls of the company, had the honour of lighting the candles. Above, centre: Diane Gray, the first Queen's Guide in the company, blew out the candles. Above, right: Mrs Vivienne Honnor, the first enrolled Guide and Jennifer Segden, the oldest present Guide, cut the cake. Left: Funny how these two young boys sat among the Guides. Below: Opunake Guides got on the bottle during the supper break.

Roving Camera

Above: Two very smart young apprentices recently returned from Auckland, where they had engaged in a trade competition. Rex Bound, at left, was the top apprentice in the foudry section, and Alan McGregor was top in pattern making. Both work at Cambrian Engineering.

Below: Lofty Blomfield congratulates two very small wrestlers at the recent sports evening at the YMCA stadium.

Married

Above: MacPHERSON-PARKES. At the Whiteley Methodist Church, NP, Gaewyn Evelyn Parkes, younger daughter of Mr and Mrs J.H. Marchie, NP, to Alexander, second son of Mr and Mrs J.A. MacPherson, Ashburton. Matron of honour was Sheridan Bridgeman, sister of the bride, NP, and the bridesmaid was Maree Eriksen, Palmerston North. Best man was John Pullin, Auckland, and the groomsman was Larry Robertson, Auckland. Future home, Auckland.

POPULAR PLAY

Below: Centre CWI recently entered a play in the CWI festival at Stratford and the British Drama League festival in New Plymouth. So popular has the play been that they have had request for repeat performances from many organisations. Here are the players: Mesdames Dorothy Rogers, Florence Bould, Stella Johnston, Willie Riding, Molly Stevens, Mona McKenna, Maude Way, Ella Patchett, Dot Williams, Eunice Park and Jan Doherty.

CELEBRATIONS

Below: Mr and Mrs A. J. Gibbs, Alton, shown here cutting the cake that marked sixty years of marriage. Congratulations, folks. (DAVID PAUL).

ART SHOW

Recently showing at the museum in New Plymouth is a rather good art show. Not only is work by local artists on view, but there are many paintings by well-known artists from outside the province. Here are a few of them. Right: Mother and child by Doris Lusk, a National Bank award winner. Far right: Portrait of Julie by Juliet Peters. Below, left: Wendy Maree by Juliet Peter. Below right: Another of Juliet Peter called Aqua Nude. Bottom, left: Climbing companions by Colyn Nicholls. Bottom, right: Wellington suburban garden by Austen Deans, a National Bank award winner.

21st Celebrations

MCGEE). Below: Allan, son of Mr and Mrs Pat Dodd, Harris Street, Waitara, with his mother and father. (HENRY MCGEE).

PORT WORK

When the tide is out down at the port, it is very obvious how things are progressing on the new wharf. Our picture above shows the breastwork for the new wharf jutting out to sea. On its right is a build up of sand on Ngamotu beach, and this portion will eventually be reclaimed for the space between this and the next new wharf. Below: In place of what was a very much used part of Ngamotu beach, we now have a deep water basin. From this picture it is easy to see that much work has been done, and the whole project now seems to take shape.

SPORTS

A recent inter-firm rugby match was arranged, but one of the teams failed to put in an appearance, so the team remaining, that of Cambrian Engineering, had a makeshift game among themselves. It turned out to be a very enjoyable way of spending a Sunday afternoon. Above, left: It was a no-boots job, but this didn't stop them from enjoying it. Above, right: This WAS rugby, but looks from our picture more like ballet!

ENGAGED

Above, left: TIERNEY-POTROZ. Roselin Julia, only daughter of Mrs N.W.Potroz, Stratford, and the late Mr J.J.Potroz, to Aidan Anthony, elder son of Mrs E.Tierney, County Kildaire, Ireland, and the late Mr P.Tierney.

Y.M.C.A. HOLIDAY FUN

Below: After a hard week at the national gym champs, the YMCA devoted themselves to looking after the many young boys who were on holiday from school. Here the assistant secretary of YM, Brian Coulter, gets the boys into some sort of order, before sending them on their various assignments.

MARRIED

Above: SMITH-BILLIG. At St.Andrew's Presbyterian Church, NP, Fay Ruby, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs A.G.Billig, NP, to Stanley McIvor Smith, foster son of Mr and Mrs W.McIvor, NP. The bridesmaids were Janice and Heather Billig, sisters of the bride, NP, and Christine Roberts, NP. Best man was Alec Smith, brother of the groom, Western Australia, and the groomsmen were Laurie Fever, Cambridge. Future home of the couple, New Plymouth.

Below: EWART-BROWN. At the Fitzroy Catholic Church, Jennifer Helen, younger daughter of Mrs C. Brown, NP, and the late Mr N.Brown, to John Robert, elder son of Mr and Mrs A.Ewart, Christchurch. The bridesmaids were Eris Brown, sister of the bride, NP, and Denise Holloway, NP. Best man was Wade Lawson, Whangarei, and the groomsmen were Graeme King, NP. The flower-girl was Linda Brown, Inglewood. Future home of the couple will be in Christchurch.
