

NOW SOUND

NO MORE GOLD DISC AWARDS

The annual ritual of the Loxene Gold Disc Award is over forever, and no sad farewells.

In place of the award there will be a series of awards instituted by the New Zealand Federation of the Phonographic Industry, in association with the N.Z.B.C. These awards will be as follows . . .

Top Male Vocalist	Top Female Vocalist
Top Group	Top Instrumentalist/s
Single of the Year	Album of the Year
Producer of the Year	Engineer of the Year
Best design Album Cover	Special award of merit for
Best New Artist	Educational or Community
Best N.Z. Composition	Service Record

Does that list sound very similar to Now Sound readers? It should, for Now Sound has already been making many of these awards annually for the past two years.

However, let's not be one-eyed. This new awards scheme is a one million per cent improvement on the old Loxene Gold Disc Award. It is just what the industry needs on a national basis and is to be run by the perfect organisation to help further the ideals of the industry.

It is one of the less beneficial aspects of this country's past (and present) Government policies that we have inherited a virtual monopoly of radio by the N.Z.B.C. and a complete stranglehold of the television media by the same organisation.

For this reason I am not overjoyed by the fact that the N.Z.B.C. is associated with the new awards. I only hope that it has not been allowed to gain any degree of control over the awards. However, it is nice to see that the N.Z.B.C. will be covering the awards presentation (a 40-minute ceremony) on national T.V.

The new awards will carry no top award, as was with the Loxene thing in the past, and also there will be no prize money attached to them. Suitable trophies will be presented and it is expected that the awards' prestige will be its main impact. The first presentation of the new scheme of awards will be made late in October this year.

As for our Now Sound Awards — we will still continue with our own awards. As these differ, inasmuch as they represent a nationally read newspaper columns' own awards to artists, and also cover both local and international artists, it is considered that the Now Sound Awards should continue. A slight change will occur in the timing of our awards. These will now be made each January, and will represent the year just passed. A special trophy will, in future, be awarded to each recipient of a Now Sound Award.

LOOK WHO'S COMING

Promoter Philip Warren has recently returned from an overseas trip and his office has announced a formidable bag of tours by top acts that will tour New Zealand over the next few months for the Philips Company, Prestige.

As we go to press, a nine-concert tour is in progress by famed blues artists Sonny Terry and Brownie McGhee, which embraces the four main centres and Palmerston North. It includes three University concerts.

Just recently there was the Santana tour (which Now Sound previously mentioned) on August 7 and 8.

Next up is a four main centre tour by Bill Cosby, starting with Dunedin on August 8, Christchurch, August 9 and 10, Auckland, August 11 and 12, and concluding in Wellington on August 13 and 14.

On August 21, in Auckland, there will be a one-night stand (the only appearance in New Zealand) by the 36-piece vocal group, The Young Americans. They have previously only been seen in New Zealand via T.V. Specials of Dean Martin, Ed Sullivan and Bob Hope.

Commencing with a concert at Rotorua on August 30 is the David Frost/Julie Felix tour. This tour is a much more extensive one, covering many of the provincial cities and is for a total of eleven concerts. No doubt this will be a sell-out tour and those wanting to see the show should consider booking as soon as plans open in each town. Last year, Frost performed one concert in Auckland in September. After the placement of only one advertisement, the concert was completely sold out some two weeks before the artist's arrival in New Zealand. The schedule of this tour is Rotorua, August 30, New Plymouth, August 31, Auckland, September 2, Hastings, September 3, Palmerston North, September 4, Dunedin, September 5, Invercargill, September 6, Wellington, September 7 and, finally, Christchurch, September 8.

Early in September, the company will also tour Patrick O'Hagen for yet another return New Zealand tour. Tour dates have not yet been announced.

Slim Whitman will make an eleven-concert New Zealand tour, commencing on September 8, with Suzanne as his support act. The schedule is Auckland, Sept. 8, Rotorua, Sept. 9, New Plymouth, Sept. 10, Wanganui, Sept. 11, Palmerston North, Sept. 12, Napier, Sept. 13, Wellington, Sept. 15, Invercargill, Sept. 17, Dunedin, Sept. 18, Timaru, Sept. 19 and Christchurch, Sept. 21.

Next up (at this stage) is a most unusual act. Philip Warren has arranged for a Grand Mediaeval Jousting Tournament — "Tournament of Knights." This features over 50 participants and 20 horses, and is set for nation-wide appearances between November 13 and December 5. This is indeed going to be just about the most spectacular show ever staged in New Zealand, and certainly the most unique.

In February there will be an eighteen-concert return New Zealand tour by Val Doonican. Apart from the four main centres, the tour will include Hamilton, New Plymouth, Wanganui, Palmerston North, Napier, Invercargill, Timaru and Nelson.

Also commencing in February (for an eight-week season) will be a Variety Theatre show (called Palace of Variety), direct from Britain. Names include Elsie and Doris Waters, Bob and Alf Pearson, Lesley Sarony, Sandy Powell, Marjorie Manners, Reed and Delroy and Arthur Lane. Commencement date is February 8.

Philip Warren has also announced that he will bring to Auckland the Polish State Dance Company, with a company of over 100, from April 16 to 23.

He has also promised several outdoor rock shows for November, January, February and March, but will not release names of the artists at this stage. His office also states — quote "Cat Stevens in all probability will visit New Zealand during 1974."

SHORT SHORTS

Much interest is being shown in this year's Studio One series. Perhaps more than in previous years. I wonder whether the reason is due to the public, in general, having come to appreciate the importance of a song writer's work? I certainly hope so. . . .

. . . To launch a new L.P., called 'Sing Sing,' James Last and his band dressed in striped gear at the party used to announce the L.P. release.

The Stratford Bride of the Year Contest was held a few weeks back at the Stratford War Memorial Hall. There were three sections this year, Brides, Bridesmaids and Flower-girls. The latter proved to be a popular addition to the contest. Also of interest was a parade of wedding gowns from 1773 until the present time.

PRObe

with BRYCE McPHERSON

Tremendous! My reaction to a jet boat trip up the Waitara River. It was my first such experience — and what an experience.

There was plenty of water in the river and this, said, my pilot, took a lot of the 'fun' out of the excursion. The speed of the chase (there were two boats out that day), the drive through white, foaming water that marked the numerous rapids and the magnificent scenery all added up to a great experience, one that a lot of visitors to our scenic province would enjoy. Trips can't be scheduled because of the river's vagaries, but can be arranged, conditions permitting.

On the plane flight was a lively child who nearly drove everyone crazy. He was running up and down the aisle when the stewardess started serving coffee, and he ran smack into her, knocking the cups of coffee to the floor. As he stood watching her clean up the mess, she glanced up at the boy and said, "Look, why don't you go and play outside."

The young are becoming more and more impatient. An out-of-town inquirer appended this message to the flap of an envelope: "Postman, Postman, Don't go Slow. Be like Tarzan, Go, Man, Go-o-o!"

A tired-out salesman, having shown a prospective buyer a dozen cars, saw his chance when the buyer said: "What I want to see is something cheap in a touring car." His reply? "Well, sir, get in this one!"

A doctor tells of trying to get a medical history of a patient. The man's wife answered every question the doctor asked. Finally, the doctor requested that she leave the room, but after she left he found that the husband couldn't speak. Calling the wife back, the doctor apologised for not realising that the man had aphasia — loss of speech — and couldn't speak a word. The wife was astonished. She didn't know either!

The man plonked himself down in the barber's chair and asked for a shave. After the first few strikes, he asked the barber for another razor. "Why?" said the barber. Replied the customer, "I think I'd like to defend myself."

Patience is a virtue, and virtue is generally rewarded. So the skier who waited, and waited, and waited . . . finally got his reward with what could only be regarded as a late fall of snow on Mt Egmont. Couldn't have come at a better time either, with the province jammed with holidaymakers.

SHIPWRECK CABARET

The National Dairy Association held its mid-year cabaret at the Community Centre Hall in Hawera, a short time back.

Some of the costumes, if we might call them that, were simply tremendous, as the cabaret took the form of a 'Shipwreck' party. Needless to say, this allowed the use of imagination and those who attended certainly let the aforesaid run wild.

QUIET CORNER

Almost unnoticed by the motorist, this group of buildings tucked in below the hill, just south of the township of Mokau, reflect the quietness of country life. For these dwellers the pleasures of the beach and river fishing are within a stone's throw of their homes, while above them the world of the busy city dweller (reflected in the motorist) hurries past.
